AT WEST DULUTH

The services at the Onesta M. E. church next Sunday morning will be of more than ordinary interest from the fact that Sunday morning will see the reopening of the church after it has been freed from the big debt that hung over it for so many years and after extensive improvements that have been going on at the building ever since last fall are practically completed. It will be an interesting event in the history of the church and its congregation and the service will be something in the way of a thanksgiving session. After the regular Sunday school services between 10 and 11 o'clock Sunday morning, Rev. Robert Forster, who with the pastor, Rev. R. A. Sanderson, has labored so faithfully for the past two years to raise the debt, will deliver the sermon, the subject of which will be noted later in the week.

The fact that a church debt of $5000 has been raised and improvements made that will cost in the neighborhood of $1000, for which the money has also been secured, is a matter of much credit to Rev. Sanderson, the pastor, who has put much of his time into the work and the congregation. The debt was contracted about ten years ago, when the building was erected, many of the members of the congregation contributing also freely toward the church building up town, thinking with the flush times that then prevailed that their own church building debt could be easily carried over the years. It came on, however, and the outlook from that time was discouraging. During the past few months the interior of the church building has been made more attractive by repainting and frescoing and with new paper on the walls, all the best grade. In the renovating work the pastor has figured much in detail, as well as in the installation of a new steam heating plant of the latest pattern. The old heating plant was inadequate and church services for a long time have been held in the basement.

Another work that has been planned to begin very shortly is a refitting of the basement of the church.

THE ANNUAL WHITE SALE
Of the Silberstein & Bondy Company.

No announcement made by this firm creates more enthusiasm in the feminine heart than this one—for it is pre-eminently the occasion of all occasions for the store. Commencing as it does, a new year of business, it gives them an opportunity of placing before their patrons stocks of unusual attractiveness and below usual ruling prices. So get all you want at the start before sizes and assortments are broken. The keynote of the sale is the muslin underwear and white goods, but the embroideries, linens, towels, bedspreads and the other home necessities will possibly be just as attractive to housekeepers. Besides these lines the firm are showing the latest importations of colored cotton wash goods for spring and summer of nineteen hundred and two—and also carrying their January sales of lace curtains, cloaks, suits and furs, dress goods and silks. Taken all in all the store is a store where there are many, and their usually busy store is busier than ever.

ILLINOIS MAY SIE

Demand Made Against Steel Trust For Heavy Fees.

The Secretary of State
Threatens Proceedings
In Supreme Court.

Illinois Steel Company Says That It Is Independent.

Chicago, Jan. 15.—Notice was served on the Illinois Steel corporation that it must pay into the treasury of the state of Illinois from $55,000 to $75,000.

Secretary of State Rose sent a representative to the local offices of the steel trust in the Hooker building and demanded the fees—reaching the above figures—required under the foreign corporation act for the privilege of doing business in this state.

Mr. Rose has announced that this monstrous steel combination must respect the state laws, and failure to obey will be the signal, it is threatened, for proceedings against the big corporation before the United States supreme court. It is expected that the cohesive strength of these great combines in general will be again tested in the attempt Mr. Rose has now begun to make to collect fees from them.

The local officials of the trust declined to pay the amount, pleading that in reality the Illinois corporation was still an integral quantity. They declined to admit that they were part and parcel of the United States Steel company.

The demurrer, however, will not satisfy the state's officers. Charles Ryan was the secretary of state's representative who came to the city to serve the notice on the Illinois steel officials and on General Sales Agent Robinson of the big combination that the fees required by law must be paid.

Local representatives of the steel company contend that it has been incorporated under the laws of the state, and that the foreign corporation act has not been violated.

"The secretary of state contends," said Mr. Ryan, "that the Illinois Steel company was a mere device of life in the eyes of the law when it was merged into the Federal Steel company last summer. Recently the Federal Steel, along with the Illinois Steel, was absorbed by the United States Steel corporation, which is a foreign corporation and is wholly owned by it. We contend that the Illinois Steel company is a wholly owned subsidiary and has no right to operate and do business even as a domestic corporation until it has been received by proper procedure in compliance with the law governing the organization of Illinois corporations. The law requires every foreign corporation doing business in this state to have a public office or place in this state at which to transact business. It is our contention that before being granted the right to transact business in the state such corporation shall be required to pay into the office of the secretary of state, upon the proportion of its capital stock owned by its property and business in Illinois, fees equal to those required of similar corporations formed within and under the laws of this state."

For the privilege of incorporating and doing business in Illinois domestic companies must pay $20 if the capitalization is $2500 or less. Over this the fee rate is $1 for each $1000 of capitalization.

"The secretary of state figures that the steel trust has a capitalization of $100,000 or $150,000 of property or business in Illinois," said Mr. Ryan. "Consequently he figures that $20,000 or $22,500 is due in fees. We are not prosecuting anybody, but we will prosecute unless the law is obeyed."

K. K. Knapp, general counsel of the Illinois Steel company, claimed to have heard nothing of the threatened trouble. "I can't see how any less can be collected," said Mr. Knapp. "The Illinois Steel company is an Illinois corporation, organized under the laws of this state, managed by its stockholders at meetings of stockholders held in this state. The company has no foreign assets, nor its individual life crushed out. The United States Steel corporation merely holds stock in the concern. The latter is not a branch of the former. It is doing business in this state as a corporation and is a domestic corporation. The foreign corporation act is not involved."

"We won't waste time arguing about this," said Secretary of State Rose at Springfield. "The law is plain. The United States Steel corporation is a foreign corporation intent, to every intent, to absorb the companies which compose it. It must respect the law and pay the fees. Attorney General Hamlin gets ready suit will be begun unless this notice is heeded."

The law provides that failure to comply with the act may be treated as a violation of the act on the part of the state's attorney, and the companies violating the act may be liable to a fine of not less than $1000.

DIVORCE
Ends the Romance of a Girl's Elopement.
New York, Jan. 15.—A decree of absolute divorce was granted in the supreme court to Ida Cuthbert, a daughter of Capt. Nelson Bronson, U. S. A., retired, from Frederick R. Cuthbert, a basso. The couple eloped to Albany seven years ago, when she was only 15 years old. The old captain discovered the whereabouts of his little girl and took her away from her young husband and brought her home.

A little boy was born to her, Roland Jerome Cuthbert, now 8 years old. He has never seen his father, but has lived

GHASTLY TRAGEDY

Polish Family the Victims of a Drunken Father.

The Woman's Head Crushed Almost Beyond Recognition.

Stabbed Her Murderer Repeatedly to Save Children.

Pittsburg, Jan. 15.—A ghastly discovery was made at 10:19 o'clock this morning, when some neighbors hearing cries from the second floor of the house at 209 Spring Ave., knocked open the doors, and found the bedroom of the house saturated with blood. Mrs. Venceselski lay dead, her head and neck almost crushed beyond recognition. Three little children, their heads and bodies covered with cuts and gashes, and the husband and dead were lying on the floor.

From what could be learned, it appears that Venceselski came home intoxicated last night and assaulted his wife with a rail cutter. The first blow indented her forehead, and she was unable to use weapons as she could find, she defended herself with her hands.

The three children were asleep in one of the rooms when the brutal father attacked them.

Made desperate by the peril in which they saw their mother caught, the children picked up a knife in either hand and spring upon their husband. She was killed repeatedly, but her strength failing, her hands were cut, and she was killed by crushing her skull.

By the time he had killed his wife, Venceselski was exhausted. He sank on the floor and lay there throughout the night, his hands and feet bleeding. The children this morning attracted the neighbors.

Venceselski, it is said, was not married to the woman, whose name, it developed, was Anna.

A strange man who was found in the house, and whose name was locked up, he refuses to talk.

LINENS

There is no skimping of sizes because prices are skimped. Every garment is as long and as wide as womanly taste and comfort demand. It is lady-like underwear, of all the variations of quality and finish refined women of lenn or fit pocketbooks demand. Just that.

If garments one sees on one's going tour are to be as good value as those shown here, won't you ask for a yardstick and a little measuring tape? Sizes range in sizes cost least; and they are worth least.

IDEAL FOR CURLING

All Conditions at Duluth Rink Delight the Players.

Weather Is Just Right, Keeping Ice In Prime Condition.

Results of the Games-- International Event On Thursday.

This is the third day of the big bonspiel of the Northwestern association and it grows better every day. The ice is perfect, the events move off with precision and there is nothing to mar the enjoyment of the occasion. Curlers like keen ice, for it permits the game to be played as it should be and makes of it a game of science and not one of main strength and luck as it largely is in the ice is heavy.

James McDermid, of Winnipeg, who by the way is one of the most popular men at the 'spiel, made the remark yesterday that he had been attending bonspiels for twenty years and he had never been to one where the ice was more perfect, the arrangements more complete and the conveniences and general manager more competent. Manager Davis comes in for many compliments. His is a trying position. He must keep the players as far as possible. There is also an enormous amount of detail work in connection with his position. The smoothness with which things are moving is in a large measure due to his labor.

He is well assisted by the curlers, however, for the necessity of pushing the 'spiel along and not delaying games.

One of the surprises yesterday was the defeat of James McDermid, the Winnipeg man, in two events, George Comb, of Sault Ste. Marie, put him out of the Duluth Jobbers' event, and J. W. Hunter put him out of the Flour City event.

One of the most exciting games of the evening series was D. W. Stocking, of Duluth, against E. J. Sparling, of Port William man. Stocking won by 10 to 7. He had one of the best rinks at the 'spiel.

C. A. Duncan has made as fine a record thus far as any Duluth rink, although defeated yesterday afternoon. He, J. MacLeod and D. W. Stocking are running out well in some of the competitions. C. F. Macdonald defeated a Sault Ste. Marie rink last evening and passed into the second draw of the St. Paul Jobbers' event, but put him out of the Duluth Jobbers' event, and J. W. Hunter put him out of the Flour City event.

Last evening the younger curlers made a fine showing. George Leteau defeated A. K. Smith, of Superior, and Ralph Bradley, won from Otto Fowle, of Sault Ste. Marie.

The scores made yesterday were as follows:

HE HITS HARD.

Good, Old King Coffee.

People don't realize what a savage tyrant coffee is. It gets the upper hand and one of the reasons it maintains its power is that people do not believe that coffee is doing the deadly work, but that they wake up once in a while.

A lady in Norfolk, Va., writes an interesting experience. "Some months ago a friend who was calling asked if I wanted to read a sweet letter, and I read it she brushed her tears away."

The doctor had told her that they could not give her any more coffee, and in her sweet, Christian way she wrote regarding her approaching death.

It was from a beautiful Christian woman, the mother of her husband.

The store had been closed an hour or more when Officer Weber noticed a blaze in the rear of the store. The fire department was summoned quickly and none too soon, for the fire gave every indication of quick destruction. The department put it out with chemicals and confined the damage to $500, fully covered by insurance.

Bridge Is Safe.

The board of public works has made an investigation of the Lester Park bridge which is said to be defective and will make a few necessary repairs to it before spring. In the meantime the city engineer says that the bridge is perfectly safe so long as the ground to its approaches is frozen.

An Affront to Decency.

To the Editor of The Herald: The Herald deserves a great deal of praise for its scathing editorial in a recent issue, commendatory of a flagrant abuse of decency in making a spectacle of the unfortunate helpless dead, thereby fostering a criminal tendency in children through the disgusting process of familiarizing with gruesome sights and environment. And apparently solely to provide sensation to the brutal and the morbidly insane. What is the matter with the corner? Where is the humane officer?

Duluth, Jan. 14. DECECY.

A GOOD BLUFF.

How Senator Baldwin Fooled the "Proof" at School.

Senator C. O. Baldwin stood just within the entrance to the Unitarian church Monday evening, just before the discussion of the ship subsidy question opened, button-holing his friends as they arrived with the query: "Say, what do you know about this bill?" He explained that he had been busy and had continued putting off an investigation of the subject until he hadn't made one at all. "So," he concluded, "I have decided to just talk against it."

Which reminded him of the expedient he resorted to while at college, in order to get the best of his professor of rhetoric, who required one member of his class to have once each week a written paper on some assigned subject. The English of which would be discussed by the class. One day the senator was billed to be the star of the day with a thesis on "The Relation of the Railroads to the Mississippi Valley." He had been too "busy" to prepare a paper, and marched to recitation with nothing but a few sheets of blank paper, endeavoring his brain as to what sort of a scheme he could work out to avoid the "professor's" displeasure, and incidentally his own discomfort. Something must be done in a hurry. He was running his pen over his pad of paper, the brilliant thought struck the embryonic legislator that he must get up and make a bluff talk against time, but the question occurred as to how he could submit the paper after-ward, as was required, to be read by another student and then discussed by the class. Shortland would do it, and as Baldwin didn't know a blessed thing about shorthand another bluff must be worked along that line. Relying on the "professor's" ignorance of stenography, Mr. Baldwin made some rapid passes over a few sheets of paper with his pen.

Then, when called on to read his paper, he made a talk against time and when asked to submit his paper pleaded that owing to the rush for time he had been unable to write out his shorthand notes and suggested that the reader should read them himself. The reader, who was a member of the class, began to read, and to his surprise found that the paper was a long and rambling disquisition on the subject of the day, expecting to be momentarily called to account because he had varied from the previous context. But whether through inattention in the first place or his own marvelous ability of the moment to recall what he had originally said nobody called his hand and the game was won by strategy.

One or two truly witty remarks were made at his expense Monday evening, particularly in Mr. Simon's deplorable style, but when the senator concluded his arrangement of the ship subsidy scheme he received a hearty round of applause. He had again successfully talked against time, and his intense earnestness had won for him.

W. A. Cameron, of St. Paul, who is attending the hospital as a member of Dean Lorimer's rink, is one of the capital city's extensive contractors and builders. He remodeled the St. Paul Union depot a few years ago. Mr. Cameron says that St. Paul is having quite a building boom, particularly in the way of flat buildings and houses to rent. All the houses and flat buildings in the city are sure to be occupied and people are crying for more room.

"I wish somebody would get real enterprising," suggests a young married man who is lean on both money and energy, "and build some modern flats here which would rent for $20 or $25 a month. It could be done. Of course, the flats would have to be on the bluff plan. If one wanted to turn around after getting in such a flat he would have to back to the city. But there are marked conveniences about them. The housewife can stand at the gas range and bring the cold food to the table in the dining room without moving a step. And you can retire by simply falling backward onto the bed through the door leading into the chamber; there would be difficulty about deliberately walking in and lying on the bed for a moment. Another advantage would be shown when your daughter received her young man. The father-in-law could get away by placing the backs of their chairs against opposite sides of the room and not a word of conversation on the part of the father-in-law. The two could not make as much racket talking to one another as many do, because being so near to one another the noise might split their ear drums. That would mean better rest for the old folks. No, a strictly modern apartment flat at $25 a month wouldn't be an exhibition of magnificent distances in the dimensions of the rooms, but the dimension of the rent would come within the limits of a man's purse, and that's what few flats do here just now—at least, purses like mine."

HARD ON THEM

The Lack of Snow Hits Small Timber Operators.

J. Reddy, a Wentworth, Wis., lumberman, is stopping at the St. Louis. Mr. Reddy says that lack of snow is interfering greatly with smaller loggers in his section of the country. The larger operators can, of course, resort to sprinklers and make ice roads, but the settlers who are getting out ties, posts and spruce are not so fortunate. Their operations are on such a small scale that sprinkling would not pay. The work of this class constitutes quite a large portion of the logging done in the older timbered sections of Northern Wisconsin, where much of the pine and largest trees have been cut over and settlers are coming in. About the only revenue-raising industry they can engage in is the cutting of ties, posts and spruce on otherwise cut-over lands, and under such weather conditions fall harvest is out of the question.

Mr. Reddy says that quite a little spruce is being gotten out in his section this winter, though not nearly so much as last winter. The Fox and Wisconsin rivers have been running sufficient pulp wood nearer home this winter without calling to Lake Superior for it.

SWALLOWED.

Swan River Road Is Consolidated With Eastern Minnesota.

The Eastern Minnesota has swallowed up the Swan River Logging road, which was bought in by the Hill interests some days ago. It has been conducted as a separate concern, with Louis W. Hill, president of the Eastern Minnesota, as president. A deed was filed this afternoon in the office of the register of deeds conveying the road to the Eastern Minnesota for $500,000, dated Jan. 6, and signed by Louis W. Hill as president of the Swan River company.

NEW EDITION OUT.

H. E. Harris Rescues His Book From Neely Insolvency.

A third edition of Henry E. Harris' romantic novel, "The King of Andros," has been brought out by the Abby press, of New York. The book was originally published by F. Tennyson Neely, of New York. Two editions aggregated more than 100,000 copies were printed and the work was selling well. Then an epidemic of failure among book publishers began, and Neely was among the first to get caught. The failure of a few firms to the place and it was only recently through sale of the assets of the insolvent firm that Mr. Harris could purchase back the rights and plates and arrange for a new edition.

"I wish somebody would get real enterprising," suggests a young married man who is lean on both money and energy, "and build some modern flats here which would rent for $20 or $25 a month. It could be done. Of course, the flats would have to be on the bluff plan. If one wanted to turn around after getting in such a flat he would have to back to the city. But there are marked conveniences about them. The housewife can stand at the gas range and bring the cold food to the table in the dining room without moving a step. And you can retire by simply falling backward onto the bed through the door leading into the chamber; there would be difficulty about deliberately walking in and lying on the bed for a moment. Another advantage would be shown when your daughter received her young man. The father-in-law could get away by placing the backs of their chairs against opposite sides of the room and not a word of conversation on the part of the father-in-law. The two could not make as much racket talking to one another as many do, because being so near to one another the noise might split their ear drums. That would mean better rest for the old folks. No, a strictly modern apartment flat at $25 a month wouldn't be an exhibition of magnificent distances in the dimensions of the rooms, but the dimension of the rent would come within the limits of a man's purse, and that's what few flats do here just now—at least, purses like mine."

Which reminds him of the expedient he resorted to while at college, in order to get the best of his professor of rhetoric, who required one member of his class to have once each week a written paper on some assigned subject. The English of which would be discussed by the class. One day the senator was billed to be the star of the day with a thesis on "The Relation of the Railroads to the Mississippi Valley." He had been too "busy" to prepare a paper, and marched to recitation with nothing but a few sheets of blank paper, endeavoring his brain as to what sort of a scheme he could work out to avoid the "professor's" displeasure, and incidentally his own discomfort. Something must be done in a hurry. He was running his pen over his pad of paper, the brilliant thought struck the embryonic legislator that he must get up and make a bluff talk against time, but the question occurred as to how he could submit the paper after-ward, as was required, to be read by another student and then discussed by the class. Shortland would do it, and as Baldwin didn't know a blessed thing about shorthand another bluff must be worked along that line. Relying on the "professor's" ignorance of stenography, Mr. Baldwin made some rapid passes over a few sheets of paper with his pen.

Then, when called on to read his paper, he made a talk against time and when asked to submit his paper pleaded that owing to the rush for time he had been unable to write out his shorthand notes and suggested that the reader should read them himself. The reader, who was a member of the class, began to read, and to his surprise found that the paper was a long and rambling disquisition on the subject of the day, expecting to be momentarily called to account because he had varied from the previous context. But whether through inattention in the first place or his own marvelous ability of the moment to recall what he had originally said nobody called his hand and the game was won by strategy.

One or two truly witty remarks were made at his expense Monday evening, particularly in Mr. Simon's deplorable style, but when the senator concluded his arrangement of the ship subsidy scheme he received a hearty round of applause. He had again successfully talked against time, and his intense earnestness had won for him.

W. A. Cameron, of St. Paul, who is attending the hospital as a member of Dean Lorimer's rink, is one of the capital city's extensive contractors and builders. He remodeled the St. Paul Union depot a few years ago. Mr. Cameron says that St. Paul is having quite a building boom, particularly in the way of flat buildings and houses to rent. All the houses and flat buildings in the city are sure to be occupied and people are crying for more room.

Miss McDowell, of Chicago, who was in Duluth for the purpose of giving a series of lectures on settlement work, gave a talk on "The Social Settlement Work." There was a good attendance of the women of the club and their friends. The entertainment was opened with two musical selections. Mrs. Mather and Miss Simons rendered a violin and piano duet and Miss Elizabeth Frazer sang. OLD ENGLAND.

Illustrated Lecture at Lakeside By G. W. E. Hill.

Prof. G. W. E. Hill, of Des Moines, Iowa, lectured last evening on "Along English Highways," at the Lakeside Presbyterian church. There was a good attendance. The title of the lecture had little to do with the subject proper, but it afforded Mr. Hill an opportunity to introduce to his audience some of the old and interesting parts of the country, as well as to give prospective tourists a few tips to the places to visit.

The first picture on the canvas was "Rock of Ages," which, while the audience was singing the familiar old hymn, was beautifully illustrated with stereoscopic views. Then came the floating platform, which was a good deal of fun, and which was to transport the audience to England. The lecture was very interesting and very instructive. Mr. Hill's subject for this evening is "Shamrock and Heather."

OUTCLASSED.

Y. M. C. A. Buries Nelson Dewey Team at Basket Ball.

By the largest score ever made in this city the Y. M. C. A. basketball team defeated the Nelson Dewey "five" of Superior last night. The score was 11 to 0. Had it not been for two unfortunate fouls the Wisconsin men would have been shut out completely. They were much lighter than the Duluth men and were completely outclassed. In the first half Duluth scored 2 points through quick scientific work, while their opponents scored 2 on fouls. The last half the Y. M. C. A. threw in 3 points and the Superior "five" was unable to score.

The line-up: Y. M. C. A. center, Henderson; forward, Henderson; guard, Henderson; guard, Henderson; guard, Henderson. Time of halves—20 and 15 minutes.

The Rome correspondent of the London Daily Chronicle says that while the pope was granting an audience to American pilgrims last Monday, he was taken with a severe attack of indigestion, and he was soon recovered. It was said upon the London stock exchange that Dr. Kuyper, the Dutch premier, had been in England and had had a long interview with some well known British politicians. The Shanghai correspondent of the Standard says it is reported that the Russians, before the death of the late Li Hung-chang, secured a concession for a railway at Han Hai, southeast of Shanghai, near the Yangtze.

Hardwood Farm Lands.

Now is the time to buy lands in Northern Michigan before they advance to something like their actual value.
I have for sale several tracts close to the railroad at $1.75 to $2.50 per acre. These lands all have more than enough birch, maple and other hardwood to buy for the land, so that when the timber is cut the land would practically cost the owner nothing.
The soil is good and a crop failure in this section is unknown.

SAVED BY BREECHES

Thrilling Rescue Made By Life Saving Crew.

A Perilous Trip Through the Raging Seas.

Ludington, Mich., Jan. 17.—The Pere Marquette railroad steamer No. 3 struck the bar at the mouth of the harbor early today while attempting to enter in a high southwest gale and was scuttled in nine feet of water. The nine passengers and the crew of thirty-five were taken off the wrecked craft by the life-saving crew with their breeches buoy apparatus. The No. 3 lies 150 feet from the end of the north pier and 200 feet from the shore, with the great waves dashing over her decks. She is already a mass of ice.

The accident occurred before daylight. Passengers and crew were rudely awakened by the succession of shocks as the steamer pounded on the bar. Signals of distress were immediately blown, and the life-saving crew quickly responded. Running their mortar out on the pier, the life-saver was then hauled aboard, and when daylight broke there was a line 200 feet long stretched from the pier to the No. 3, and the breeches buoy apparatus was ready for use. Over this line the passengers, four of whom were women, and the crew of thirty were safely taken within two hours. It was a thrilling rescue. As the people were drawn along the rope the great waves broke over them, and all were drenched by the icy water when they reached the pier. The boat was loaded with 25,000 bushels of barley and 200 tons of merchandise. The stranding occurred at almost exactly the same spot where the car ferry Muskegon struck and was wrecked three weeks ago. The Pere Marquette officials hope to save the No. 3 and her cargo, but there is great danger that the boat will go to pieces if the high sea continues.

Capt. Frank Dority, who was the last man to leave the vessel in the buoy, says that the rudder stock was twisted by the large seas that were rolling and the steering gear refused to work. The steamer then lost her head and rolled in the trough of the sea until she struck. Engineer Williams made every effort to work the vessel with her own steam, and stayed in the engine room until driven out by the water. Following are the names of the passengers: W. W. Archibald, Manistee; E. E. Seymour, Manistee; E. O. Flaherty, Detroit; Jos. Norris, Manistee; Anna Gordon, Manistee; Mrs. Freeman, Detroit; W. A. Gastier and wife, Ludington; A. A. Selbert, Manistee.

LAKE LINDEN SCORCHED

The Upper Peninsula City Has a Disastrous Conflagration, Making the Third One Within a Year.

St. Paul, Jan. 17.—A Calumet, Mich., special to the Dispatch says, Lake Linden, five miles south of this city, was visited by the third disastrous fire within a year this morning. Fire in the town building was discovered at 3 o'clock, and this time the firemen could not control the damage amounted to $50,000. The Lake Linden and Calumet and Hecia companies worked for three hours fighting the fire. The firemen worked under cover of wet blankets owing to the intense heat. The losses are as follows:

Lake Linden Co-operative company, $20,000; D. Van Buren, $30,000; Typing building, $15,000; Leo DeMotte, $100; Jane's candy store, $100. Nearly all the losses are covered by insurance.

VENEZUELA PROTESTS

Her Minister of State Cables to London That the British Ship Banrigh Is Inimical to Venezuelan Interests.

New York, Jan. 17.—According to the Washington correspondent of the Herald, Venezuela has sent the following cablegram to the British government:

"Caracas, Jan. 9, 1902.—Minister of State, London: The English steamship Banrigh, armed for war, is inimical to Venezuela. Minister of Foreign Affairs."

The British foreign officer has not replied to this note. Officers of the British warship, now at La Guayra, the seaport of Caracas, consider that the Banrigh, which is now called the Libertador by the Venezuelan insurgents, is a smuggling and revolutionary vessel, and they will not interfere with her movements because she has not committed any practical act up to the present time against foreign interests. The craft, therefore, is considered as an enemy to the human race.

DENIED BY KITCHENER

British General Refutes Charges of Cruelty In the Boer Concentration Camps as Alleged By Commandant Schalkburger.

London, Jan. 17.—A blue book issued this morning on the subject of the concentration camps in South Africa contains further detailed explanations from Lord Milner, the British high commissioner, and Lord Kitchener, as to the causes of the excessive death rate in the camps, and refutations of the charges of cruelty.

Lord Kitchener emphatically denies Commander Schalkburger's allegations of forcible removal, and exposure of pregnant women and of rough and cruel treatment of women and children, and says:

"I offered both to leave the families and relatives of fighting burghers in undisturbed possession of their farms if both would agree to spare the farms of the families of surrendered burghers. Both emphatically refused, saying: 'I am entitled to force every man to join, and if they do not join, then confiscate their property and leave their families on the veldt.'"

The blue book gives statistics for the month of December last, when there were 17,000 inmates of the camps and 238 deaths, of which number 1761 were children.

SHAW'S CLEMENCY TO MANY

Des Moines, Jan. 17.—As practically the closing act of his administration, Governor Shaw made public the names of 413 prisoners to whom he had extended executive clemency within the last two years. The governor's record in this respect, it is stated, has never been equaled in Iowa.

BUFFALO IS DISAPPEARING

Butte, Mont., Jan. 17.—According to reports received from the Yellowstone park, the buffalo herd within its confines is rapidly disappearing and unless congress makes further provision threatens to become extinct. New blood must be introduced into the little herd frequenting Geyserland. Last winter but eighteen buffaloes remained in the Hayden valley of the former herd of thirty. The specimens that now exist lack the strength of their former hardy predecessors and are barely able to withstand the rigors of the winter.

Elk are reported more numerous than any other animal in the park. There are at least 50,000 of them within the park limits.

TRAGEDY IN BUGGY

Livery Horse Comes Home Drawing a Dead Body.

An Unconscious Man Was Also in the Carriage.

Woman Supposed to Have Been Killed By Companion.

Coffin, Ill., Jan. 17.—A buggy containing the dead body of Miss Gertrude Clifford, who lived near Donnellson, and Fred Brockman, in an unconscious condition, came to Hart's livery stable last night about 9 o'clock. Miss Clifford was taken to an undertaking establishment, and Brockman was placed in the hands of physicians. Later he was aroused and put under arrest. The young woman's death was evidently caused by an ugly bullet wound through the temple. Brockman had shot himself twice in the head, and it is doubtful whether he will live.

When asked about the affair he refused to say anything except that a letter could be found in the buggy to explain matters. The letter was found in his overcoat. The coroner has not yet arrived, and officers decline to make public the contents of the letter. Miss Clifford was a member of a highly respectable family near Donnellson and was about 20 years of age. Fred Brockman is 21 years of age, a son of Hiram Brockman, of Coffin.

POSTPONED.

Great Fair at St. Louis Will Not Occur Until 1904.

Washington, Jan. 17.—The Louisiana purchase exposition which was to have been held in St. Louis in 1903 will not take place until 1904. This fact was practically conceded by ex-Governor Francis, president of the Exposition company, and Adolph Busche, the financial agent of the company, at the White House today. Since arriving here and conferring with the foreign representatives, Governor Francis and Mr. Busche have decided that unless the exposition is postponed for a year, the exposition will not be able to secure the elaborate collection of exhibits which they desire. They find, for instance, that a great Japanese fair is to be given under government auspices in 1903, and if the exposition is postponed until 1904, everything of interest exhibited there can be brought to St. Louis the following year. It is the desire of the exposition management that the foreign exhibits especially shall be very complete. "In 1903 we can make the exposition as great as any ever given," said Governor Francis, "but if we postpone it a year it will surpass anything we can make abroad by that time."

In order to interest foreign governments it is the desire of the exposition management that the foreign agents of the exposition be appointed and accredited by the state department. Yesterday Governor Francis and Mr. Busche extended an invitation through the German embassy to Prince Henry to visit St. Louis during his stay in this country, but no reply had been received up to noon today.

STREIKER'S

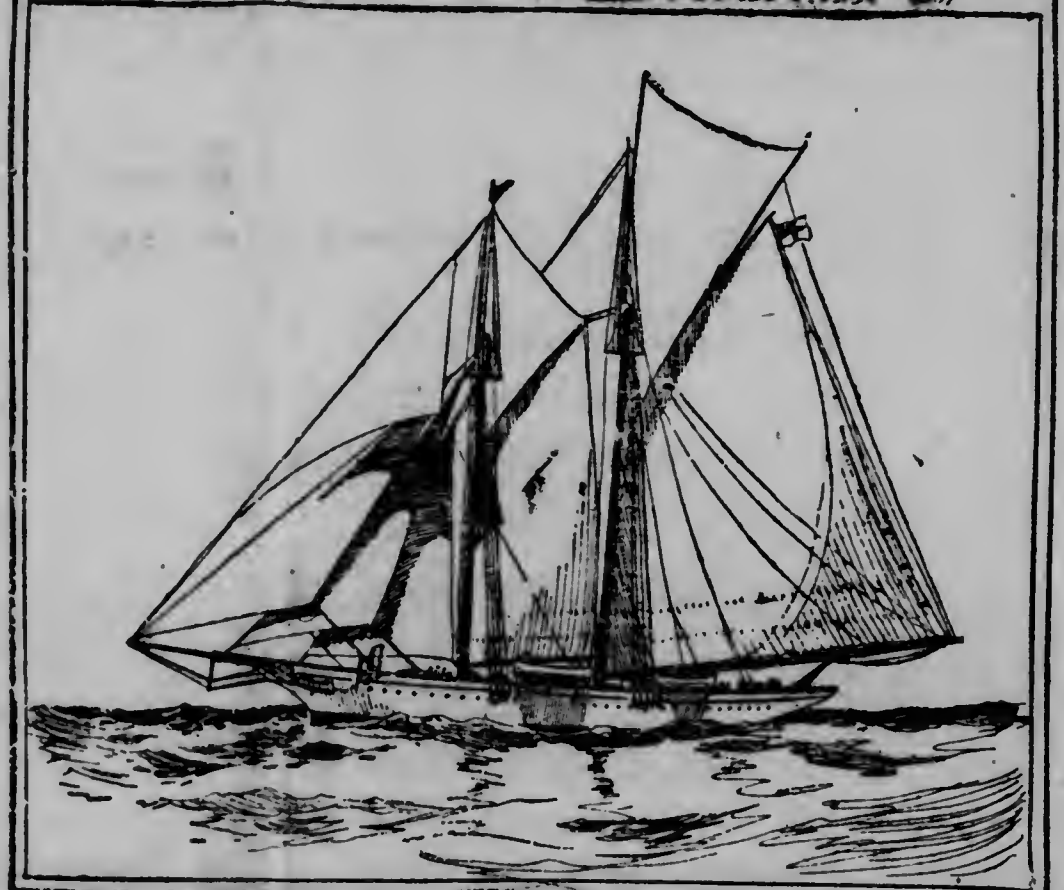

Collection of Butterflies Goes to the American Museum.

New York, Jan. 17.—Through the gift of $20,000 by Dean Hoffman, the American museum of natural history will receive the largest collection of butterflies and moths in this country. This addition will make the museum's collection one of the largest in the world. Since the death of Dr. Herman Strecker, many representatives of museums have visited his former home in Reading, Pa., and strong efforts have been made to obtain his collection for their respective institutions. The heirs, however, said no departure would be made from the original valuation placed upon the collection by Dr. Strecker, which was $20,000. Morris K. Jesup, president of the museum in this city, has received a letter from Dean Hoffman authorizing him to buy the collection for that sum. The arrival of the Strecker material will increase the museum's collection by fully 100,000 specimens, among which are several hundred "types"—that is, specimens originally new to science and from which the scientific description of the species is made. The museum will receive also the Strecker library.

Saginaw Man Commits Suicide at Sherman House.

Saginaw, Mich., Jan. 17.—F. P. Press, of this city, engaged in the milling and elevator business, committed suicide by shooting himself while in a room in the Sherman house here late yesterday. Press came here with his wife and daughter and a son last September from Scranton, Pa. A son, H. P. Press, lives in Scranton and a daughter, Mrs. W. Freeman, lives in San Antonio, Texas.

ADMIRAL PRINCE HENRY AND THE KAISER'S YACHT AS IT WILL LOOK IN COMMISSION.

The visit of Prince Henry, only brother of Emperor William and admiral in the German navy, will be a notable one, and "Edmund the Navigator," as he is affectionately termed at home, will receive a hearty welcome. At the launching of the imperial yacht which will be christened by Miss Roosevelt, he will be received by the president. When he reaches Washington, he will be received by the president. The yacht will be launched at Shooter's Island, near New York city.

Knoxville, Tenn., Jan. 17.—J. W. Martin, a postoffice clerk, was injured this morning by an explosion of a package of powder, nitro-glycerin or an infernal machine. He was stamping letters and packages, and had just received a package of powder, nitro-glycerin or an infernal machine. SUFFERSTO SAVE FRIEND

Former Postmaster of Southern Indiana Goes to Prison on Charge of Horse Stealing to Shield a Friend.

Chicago, Jan. 17.—Albert Gilmore, until recently a prominent postmaster in Southern Illinois and a member of a leading family, was sentenced to the Michigan City prison in a few days to serve an intermediate sentence for horse stealing, says a La Porte, Ind., special to the Record-Herald. Gilmore made no defense. He pleaded guilty in order to save the real criminal, who was his friend. Influence brought to bear on Gilmore could not shake him in his decision to go to prison to save a man who once had befriended him.

The court, in view of the plea of guilty, passed sentence, but with the development of the facts, which will prove Gilmore's innocence, Governor Durban will be asked to pardon him.

TIMBER LANDS IN OREGON

Portland, Ore., Jan. 17.—Eastern capital in excess of $500,000 is to be invested in Oregon timber lands along the Columbia and McKenzie rivers, and plans will be matured within the year for the erection of sawmills to convert the standing timber into lumber. Benjamin Sweet, W. G. Collins and W. H. Bradley, of Milwaukee, Wis., have been on the Pacific coast for several weeks past, and within that time have inspected timber lands in Oregon, Washington and California.

There are engaged in the lumber industry in Wisconsin to a large extent, and the growing demand for lumber, coupled with the gradual depletion of the Middle Western forests, has made it necessary to go farther West.

M'KINLEY FUND GROWING

Chicago, Jan. 17.—Alex H. Revell, chairman of the Illinois auxiliary of the McKinley National Memorial association, reports subscriptions to the monument fund to date of $25,139. This is an increase of about $5000 since the last report. It is expected that a climax will be reached on Jan. 23, the first anniversary of the president's birth since his death, which is to be recognized as McKinley day throughout the country. On the Sunday previous to this day, which will be the last Wednesday of this month, it is expected that memorial services will be held in all churches of the state and voluntary contributions made for the national memorial. In addition to this, special exercises will be held in schools outside of Chicago Jan. 23, on a convenient date, and collections taken up for the fund.

ANOTHER BASEBALL LEAGUE

Chicago, Jan. 17.—The latest move in the baseball field is said to be a new league, with A. G. Spalding as its official head. It is announced that if Dreyfuss decides to transfer the Pittsburgh club from the National to the American league, Spalding will undoubtedly organize a new league, and that New York will not be included in its circuit. Spalding, with the aid of Hart, Reach and Rogers, according to the program, will organize a new eight-city league, made up of the following cities:

Brooklyn, Boston, Philadelphia and Washington in the East, and Chicago, Pittsburgh, Cincinnati and St. Louis in the West.

PRINCE IS DELIGHTED

Talks of Nothing But Trip to United States.

Emperor Selects Suite to Accompany Henry.

New York, Jan. 17.—Count Von Zeckendorf, marshal of the court, who will accompany Prince Henry to America, writes to an American friend here that the prince and the members of his suite are delighted at the idea of their trip to America, and talk of nothing else, cables the Berlin representative of the Journal and American. Zeckendorf says he will be delighted to renew the acquaintances he made on his visits to San Francisco and other cities in 1889 and 1892 of which he has the pleasantest recollections.

The foreign office declines to give the names of the prince's suite. The German press is deeply interested in the trip and the leading papers of Berlin and other big cities are sending special correspondents.

Deutschland, March 8. This general design, you see, fills up about four weeks, one week in going each way, and a fortnight in the United States."

It was suggested to Admiral Von Seckendorf that two weeks was not enough for the prince to see much of America, and that he ought to spend a longer time in the United States and go longer South, to which the admiral replied: "It would be difficult for his royal highness to spend a much longer time there, though the Deutschland's sailing can be delayed a day or two, if it seems desirable."

"An invitation from Chicago is mentioned, I see, but I am unable to say whether it will be accepted. That will be left to your people. Prince Henry simply wishes to spend his time as those at Washington may think to be to his best advantage. He looks forward with keen interest to the trip and expects to get pleasure and instruction out of it."

A regret was expressed at the fact that the emperor could not visit the United States.

"He would like to," said Admiral Von Seckendorf, "but we cannot spare him for so long a journey now."

The admiral was asked if it was possible that the emperor might visit the United States at some future time. "It would please him greatly," answered the admiral. "It is not an impossibility."

Admiral Von Seckendorf visited Norfolk in 1890 on the Prussian warship Victoria, and was at San Francisco in 1892 on the old German warship Hertha, which has since been replaced by a new cruiser of the same name. The old Hertha was the first Imperial German warship to visit the Pacific coast. She went to San Francisco after leaving Japan. Von Seckendorf has vivid recollections of San Francisco and his fortnight's entertainment there.

Emperor William has ordered the Hohenzollern to be fitted out with all the accessories used when his majesty is on board the yacht.

The Lokal Anzeiger today prints the following: "Emperor William has commissioned Prince Henry to meet the prominent New York yachtsmen and invite them to participate in the Kiel regatta, beginning June 23. Prince Henry will also ask the president to permit the United States Mediterranean squadron to be present at Kiel during the regatta week, so that American seamen may participate in the barge races. Prince Henry bears a valuable present from Emperor William for Miss Roosevelt."

Admiral Von Seckendorf, in giving the correspondent of the Associated Press these names, said:

"The emperor personally is making all the arrangements that can be made on this side. The details as to how Prince Henry shall spend his time in the United States are left to Secretary Hay and Dr. Von Holsten, but our general idea of the dates is this:

"We arrive on the Kron Prinz Wilhelm, Feb. 22 at New York. Prince Henry will go on board the Hohenzollern and will stay there till the launching of the emperor's new yacht, which we think will probably be Feb. 24. We go to Washington to see the president and perhaps will stay there several days. Then we make the most of the next few days in seeing other cities, returning to New York for two more days before we sail for home on the smokeless powder concern. The interior of the parcel showed a tin box, containing the explosive had been carefully packed. The local hardware firm disclaiming having ordered such a package, or having been notified of its shipment. It was not hearted to receive samples of explosives by mail. The postal authorities have begun an investigation. Arrests may follow.

MANNERS IS THE VALET

Dr. Witherspoon of Chicago Positively Identifies Man Under Arrest at New Orleans as One Who Stole Thebaud Diamonds.

Chicago, Jan. 17.—Theodore E. Manners, who is under arrest in New Orleans, is positively identified in Chicago, says the Chronicle, as the valet of Paul G. Thebaud, of New York, and fugitive under the charge of having stolen $50,000 worth of jewelry from the wife of his employer.

The identification is by Dr. Louis G. Witherspoon, of 1002 West Madison street, who, the prisoner declared, would identify him as the son of a pawnbroker in this city. Dr. Witherspoon says that the photographs of the missing valet, who disappeared with a fortune in diamonds, are unquestionably exact pictures of the man he knows as "Manners," although, oddly, the suspect gave Dr. Witherspoon as a reference and as one of the men who could prove that he was what he claimed to be—the son of a Chicago pawnbroker, with a residence at 3100 Groveland avenue.

"I know Thomas E. Manners, or the man who represented himself to me under that name," said Dr. Witherspoon, "but he never told me that he was a citizen of Chicago. He always claimed that he was a resident of New York city."

"The Manners whom I know, and who is certainly the valet wanted for the big jewelry robbery in New York, was in Chicago last week. He called on me at my office and later we took dinner together."

Dr. Witherspoon says he first met Manners on the pier in New York city two years ago and that when they left the ship in Hamburg Manners gave him valuable information regarding resorts in Germany and Switzerland, showing he was an experienced traveler. Dr. Witherspoon says Manners always had plenty of money, and when here last week said he was going to New Orleans and then to San Francisco.

"Manners always claimed to me," said Dr. Witherspoon, "that he was the son of a president of a large firm that imports and exports fruit and that he acted in the capacity of auditor, visiting European agents of the firm."

Vice President Fitch Here But Will Not Discuss Change.

The Operating Department Will Be Retained at Marquette.

Vice President W. F. Fitch of the South Shore road arrived in the city this morning from Marquette. He was accompanied by General Passenger Agent George W. Hilbard, who spent the forenoon at West Superior. It is current talk in railroad circles today that the chief purpose of Mr.

Fitch's visit is to make arrangements for office room for several of the executive and general departments of the South Shore in this city. Indeed, it is understood that it is determined that Mr. Fitch will on May 1 move his office, the general passenger department, legal department and probably the engineering department to Duluth. The heads of these departments have already, it is said, received instructions to prepare for the change, and are already arranging their affairs in Marquette so that they can become residents of Duluth in the spring. The operating department of the road will, it is understood, remain in Marquette, the headquarters for it were provided in the second story of the new passenger depot recently completed there.

Mr. Fitch was asked this noon if his visit to Duluth on this occasion was for the purpose of arranging for office space for the departments that it is reported will be removed from Marquette to Duluth. He answered in the affirmative. As to the report that the change will be made, Mr. Fitch said that the plans of the company are still very unsettled and that nothing definite has been decided regarding the matter. He was unwilling to consider any further action on the subject of the reported change.

Referring to the traffic situation, Mr. Fitch talked freely. "We are doing a big freight business this winter," he said, "and carload traffic seems to be limited only by the cars we can command. In fact, we are hampered by a serious car shortage. There are large quantities of grain, flour and lumber moving East this season."

Mr. Fitch says Duluth ought to put forward claims as a winter resort. At Marquette, they have had eleven weeks of sleighing, and in the city there are two feet of snow during the winter. "It seems strange," he said, "to find a bright, spring-like day here, when three and a half hours of the ride on a train will take you where there are four feet of snow on the level."

Mr. Fitch will remain here until tomorrow evening. The relatives of William Brotherton, who for some time has been one of the proprietors of a saloon near Eighth avenue west and Superior street, report that he has been missing since a week ago last Tuesday, and they are much worried as to his whereabouts. Brotherton was last seen Jan. 7, when he was apparently in good health and spirits, and his sudden disappearance is a mystery to his relatives and friends, who claim that he was not in any trouble, had plenty of money and had no reason to leave in the manner that he has.

CLEANING.

Squad Is Put at Work on Superior Street.

The street cleaning squad was put at work on Superior street this morning with patrol carts and hand brushes. The members of the board of public works say it would not have been good judgment to put on the street sweepers as has been suggested, and that they would raise a tremendous dust. It is inevitable that the street will be dirty at this time of the year, and the sweeping without sprinkling would only add to the dirt already on the street. It would be better to get the store windows cleaned before spring.

ANOTHER CAUGHT. Fourth Blind Pig Operator Is Lined Up.

Frank Bowman, the blind pig proprietor that escaped when Deputy Sheriff invaded his stronghold near Drummond, on Wednesday, was caught in Tower last night and brought here at noon today.

He entered a plea of guilty when arrested in police court and was sentenced to pay a fine of $25 and costs. His effort to escape added to the cost of his case, and these, together with his fine, brought the total cost up to $44, while Mrs. Bowman and Mrs. T. N. Noll caught in Bowman's place, only had to pay $8 each yesterday.

The blind pigger had not been able to raise the money to pay his fine, and should he fail in this respect he will get thirty days' hard labor in the county jail.

THE FREIGHT CUT.

Local freight representatives of the Great Northern, Northern Pacific and Soo roads have received no advice concerning the reductions to be made in merchandise freight rates. Aside from the following authorized statement by the general offices of the roads:

Des Moines, Jan. 17.—At a meeting of the Iowa Louisiana purchase commission this city today it was decided to ask the legislature for an appropriation of $250,000 for the St. Louis exposition. But three out of twenty-four members favored a less amount. Much enthusiasm was manifested.

"C. A. Towne, Broker."

A New York dispatch says that former Senator C. A. Towne will shortly open banking and brokerage offices in this city, occupying offices at 63 and 65 Wall street. The business will be done under the title of "C. A. Towne and Company."

The Vose Piano.

It possesses every virtue of a high grade piano. The stamp of original beauty is seen in its case design. Its tone is noted for its purity and character. Its construction invites the most critical inspection. The Vose is practically in a class by itself and represents a distinct advance in the science of piano building.

Detroit, Jan. 17.—Judge Swan of the United States district court today sentenced Rev. B. F. Howard, who had previously pleaded guilty to using the mails to obtain money under false pretenses at Horton, Mich., to two and a half years in the Detroit house of correction. Howard, who is well known throughout the country, was arrested by a United States marshal in Columbus, Ohio, several years ago after he left the Ohio penitentiary after serving a 3-year's sentence and brought here. He made an eloquent and pathetic plea for mercy, but Judge Swan, although much affected by it, said the sentence must be imposed.

MAY MOVE SAWMILL

J. T. Hurst May Bring One Here From Northern Michigan.

Large Timber Holdings on North Shore to Be Sawed.

Mr. Hurst Says Upper Michigan Lumbermen Look This Way.

There is a possibility that James T. Hurst, the Wisconsin lumberman, who spends much of his time in this city, will remove his sawmill from Northern Michigan either to the head of the lakes or to some convenient point on the north shore. Mr. Hurst, who came up from Michigan several days ago, left yesterday for his home, but expects to be in Duluth again by the last of this month.

For the past fourteen years Mr. Hurst has been lumbering on Whitefish Point, in Northern Michigan, and during that period has cut over 30,000,000 feet of lumber. He finished his cutting in Michigan last fall and is not operating there this winter.

Mr. Hurst said yesterday that he would move his mill if he does not sell his stumpage or make arrangements to have his logs cut by Duluth mills next season. No figures are given as to the north shore stumpage, which is quite large. Yesterday five sawmills were sent up the north shore to go through and estimate the timber.

Mr. Hurst says that the heavy white pine operations in the past years have so diminished the stumpage in Michigan that the attention of the lumbermen of that state is now directed toward the Northwest. There will be timber cut in Northern Michigan for some years to come, but the amount is rapidly decreasing.

Mr. Hurst believes that the large number of timber sales at the advanced prices in Northern Wisconsin and Minnesota during the past year and a half mark a condition that existed in Northern Michigan when the end of the white pine supply began to come in sight and he predicts that the top notch of prices in timber land in this state has not yet been reached.

BATH ROOM

Was Scene of Walter Hazel's Predatory Depredations.

Walter Hazel, a highly cultured colored person, burglarized a Turkish bath room this morning.

Later detectives got him in a sweat box, but he told them they would have to put him where it was hotter than a Turkish bath establishment before he would confess the charges against him.

About 1 o'clock this morning Hazel was seen to enter the Turkish bath at 311 West Michigan street. He went to the suite where patrons of the bath leave their valuables, and found all the apartments locked except that in which the proprietor keeps his change.

He cleaned the drawer of about $11 and disappeared. It is claimed that two customers watched him while he was robbing the safe, but thought he was a porter connected with the establishment, and paid very little attention to him.

When Mr. Kassam missed his money the visit to the bath was explained, and the police were notified. Detectives Irvine and Mark visited Hazel's home at 108 West Superior street and found him as expected.

None of the money was found on him and the prisoner denied all knowledge of the robbery. A clothes line robbery was also reported at police headquarters today. The line of Ralph Pickett, No. 20 Washington avenue, was cleared of clothing by a sneaky thief last night. There is no clue as to the perpetrator.

Before entering the Turkish bath establishment Hazel is said to have entered the home of a Mrs. Brown, 21 St. Croix avenue, and prowled through it, but he was frightened away before he secured anything.

BROKEN UP.

One Tough Resort For Lumberjacks—There Are Others.

Deputy Sheriff Newton Randall brought down on yesterday's Iron Range train the two women and man who had been entertaining the logging camp society in their territory near Drummond. The technical charge against them was blind plying, but the real reason is said to have been the lumberjack all the alluring fascination and excitement of a glitzy place in the city, minus the glitz.

The place was run in a deserted logging camp, about a mile above Drummond, where they would stay, it is said, until the exhaustion of their credit forced them to return to work.

The result, according to the story that comes down from Drummond, was that they were seen much less of some of the men than the people down at the old camp. It is claimed to have become such a nuisance that the lumbermen had to take steps to cause its abatement, or force the lot of completing their contracts this winter.

The place is said to have been run by a man named Roman, who was not taken into custody with the rest, but will be brought down today. The two women arrested were Annie Bonham, Mrs. Alice Nall and James Gannon. They were fined in municipal court yesterday and Gannon is in jail in default of his fine.

There is said to be another place of the same character, near Drummond, but located within the limits of Lake county. The loggers have tried to get it closed, it is said, but so far without success.

Loggers have been bothered a great deal by the nuisance of late in some of the north of Duluth and down the north shore. In most cases women are added to the places to lure the susceptible lumberjacks to drinking their charms.

The places are usually located on a main traveled road leading from camp to camp. Cheap red velvet curtains are said to adorn the windows and out in front further trademarks of the business are furnished by piles of empty beer kegs and boxes of straw beer bottles. The women are said to accept passers from windows or doors, and no effort is made to disguise the character of the place. Lumbermen would be glad if they could be driven out, so that their employees would work with less interruption.

TO CLEAR TITLE.

Iron Location's Ownership at Issue in Court.

A cloud to a title on a piece of iron land caused by complications of mineral leases and contracts following the failure of John McKinley is sought to be lifted in a suit brought in district court by John M. McClintock and James Wandless.

The defendants are John McKinley, who formerly held a mining lease which has since been forfeited, and many judgment creditors of his, who by the records appear to have interest in the land. The property is situated near the Stevens mine. The plaintiffs claim title by deed. John M. McClintock appears for the plaintiffs.

Donald C. McDonald and Charles M. Simpson are plaintiffs in another action to clear title which was filed today. The complaint alleges that the plaintiffs are the owners of the old of the set of section 2 and 3 and that the defendant's claim to title in the same is unfounded in fact and law. Solicitors J. Spencer and J. H. Smith are attorneys for the plaintiffs.

Transferred from the municipal court against J. McKelison was filed in district court yesterday by Afford & Hunt, attorneys for Adelle McKelison, the plaintiff.

PERSONAL TAX.

Five Hundred More This Year Than Last.

County Treasurer Whipple's force today sent out the last of the postal cards notifying personal property owners. The cards, six thousand in all, were sent out this week against 2000 last year, but the work was finished two weeks earlier than a year ago. The postals notify the recipient that after March 1 a penalty of 10 per cent will accrue if the tax has not been paid. As yet no returns have been made in which personal property valuations have been rendered in individual

METHODIST.

Morley Congregational Church Becomes Methodist and to Continue.

Morley church has found a way, and it will continue in existence. It will change, however, from Congregational to Methodist, and the little church in the East End will be under the guardianship of the Methodist Episcopal organization in the future.

Starting some years ago as a Congregational church, it had a successful career for a time, though working against the disadvantage of having few members of its sect in the community around it. Its success was continued under the leadership of Rev. and Mrs. J. H. B. Smith. But upon their recent resignation the church society found itself confronted by the question of existence, and meetings were called to settle this point. The change to the Methodist persuasion and the decision to continue the church is the result. Dr. Robert Forbes, presiding elder of the Duluth district of the Methodist church, will at once take steps to supply the pulpit. Sunday morning Rev. John Gathline will conduct the services, and in the evening Dr. Forbes will preach.

SLAPPED HER.

An Edifying Family Episode Seen on Superior Street.

Passers along Superior street in the business district this morning witnessed what they termed an unedifying spectacle in a high place.

A carriage containing two occupants—a man and woman well along in life, and apparently comfortably supplied with this world's goods—besides the coachman, started to cross the street from the curb. The lady looking backward, noticed behind them an interstate car approaching at a rapid speed. Impetuously, she clutched the coachman's arm and apparently instructed him to halt his team. The coachman obeyed instructions faithfully, and the result was that the carriage stopped directly in the path of the approaching car.

The head of the family turned to see what was the trouble behind them, observed the car just slowing down close at hand, and turning around struck the lady three times in the face. The episode closed at this point, with the exception of the settlements, audible and inaudible, of the spectators of the occurrence.

IN MICHIGAN.

Negaunee—There were ten men killed by the cave-in a week ago Tuesday, instead of nine as reported at the time. The rescues. The ground is still caving in an Italian, but was not missed until Thursday. A chance for the better occurred at the Negaunee mine Thursday, when the flow of water was overcome by three large bailers. All the skill possible is being put in use at the mine to reach the bodies of the entombed miners, although there is no idea when they will be reached. The ground is still caving from the surface, and buildings that were thought secure have gone tumbling in.

Sault Ste. Marie—Chase S. Osborn, of the city, state railroad commissioner and formerly proprietor of the Sault Ste. Marie News, has purchased the Sault Ste. Marie Courier-Herald in partnership with Walter J. Hunsicker, who was managing editor of the Detroit Journal. The deal means the removal of the most picturesque figure from Upper Peninsula politics. Mr. Osborn has been a prominent factor in the Republican politics of the peninsula for a decade and later has been a marked degree in the entire state. He first sprung into prominence when he defeated ex-Congressman Stephenson for renomination and has since wielded much influence.

Crystal Falls—After a lively dispute of several weeks standing, the county board has reluctantly allowed some $500 of claims arising out of the recent epidemic of diphtheria at Iron River and Houghton. This is a material increase.

The bills were mostly for provisions, visitors bailed on their payment until brought with a state law providing for the settlement by the county of claims resulting from the care of infectious diseases.

According to the report of the mine inspector, 120 men are employed at the seventeenth mining properties in Iron county. This is a material increase.

Houghton—Bound hand and foot with a clothes line, Martin Horner, of Painesdale, has been turned over to the sheriff and brought here for examination. As a result of a family row, the old threatened to kill his wife, and was about to attack her with a hammer when two sons interfered and overpowered him. They used an entire clothes line to make him secure and then notified the authorities.

To guard against emulphox which is again making its appearance in the country, the school board has issued an order that all pupils of the Houghton schools be vaccinated forthwith, unless they can produce certificates showing they have already been inoculated. Where parents think they cannot afford to pay for the vaccination, the board will square the bills.

Cincinnati, Jan. 17.—It is believed until a few days ago that every bit of evidence in the famous Goebel murder case had been destroyed by the fire which recently visited the building formerly occupied by the firm of Lowry & Goebel. But such is not the case, and in this particular instance there has been discovered a most astonishing preservation of the evidence. There are those who will claim that fate alone could have saved the frail papers upon which the prosecution of those who brought the late governor to his death was based after months of hard work.

In the building was a desk in which these papers and correspondence, as well as much more matter, was stored. Among these papers was a little celluloid button which bore a likeness of Governor Goebel. This button, together with a lock of hair taken from the governor's head by his brother Arthur after death; the oath of office which the martyred governor signed before dying, and the last words he uttered before he died, lay together in a book.

After the fire the desk and supposedly all its contents were a pile of blackened ashes. A few days after the disaster, peering among the ruins, Justice Goebel discovered these precious relics. The book was burned to a crisp, but between its middle leaves were found the articles named unharmed and safe. The button had suffered heat so intense that it turned red, but the likeness was the same as ever, while the lock of hair and papers were not the least disturbed.

Further delving found that not a single paper bearing upon the case had been destroyed, though everything

WAS IN A COFFIN When It Was Found She Was Alive.

Warren, Ohio, Jan. 17.—Cards which were sent out announcing the funeral of Mrs. John Evans, of Deerfield, have been recalled. The woman apparently died at her home, and arrangements for the funeral were made. Three physicians, two from Youngstown and one from Warren, examined the body and pronounced life extinct. The undertaker was called and the body was placed in a casket preparatory to burial.

Ten o'clock Monday morning was the time set for the funeral. About 10 o'clock Sunday afternoon, friends who were looking at the body noticed a slight twitching of the muscles of the face. The physicians were notified and the woman was removed from the casket and a hasty examination showed that life still existed. Powerful restoratives were applied, and finally the woman regained consciousness.

and playful. Decker says the wolves can outrun dogs on the hunt, and are very long-winded. Their favorite way of catching a rabbit is to run along side of him, put their nose underneath Mr. Cottontail and throw him ten or twelve feet in the air, catching him in their mouths as he falls. The wolves always return to their master when called.

Decker's success has caused other sportsmen to undertake the training of wolves to supplant dogs in hunting, and it is probable that wolves will find a place in future kennels.

SWAPPED HIS WIFEFor Two Cows and Three Coon Dogs.

Middletown, N. Y., Jan. 17.—Isabel Peters and Henry Masters, who live on farms a few miles from here, came to this city Saturday, and hunting up a justice of the peace, asked him to draw up a contract by which Master's wife might be transferred to Peters. The justice explained that he could not draft such a document, but asked for particulars as to the deal, and Peters explained:

"It's this way, Squire. My wife died two months ago and I'm tired of living alone. Mrs. Masters is a mighty fine woman and a good housekeeper, and Masters don't really need her. He's got a sister he can get to look after his things for him. I want to offer for her several days ago, and this morning we came to terms. I'm to give him two cows and three coon dogs, and she's worth 'em."

Asked what Mrs. Masters said about being traded off her husband and master added, "Why, nothin', of course. We didn't ask her how she liked it, but she didn't kick when we told her that we made a deal."

Although disappointed at not being able to have a wife drawn that will make the transfer legally binding, Peters and Masters declared that they would make the swap on their own and left town together to complete the trade.

TAME WOLVES Used By Ohio Man on Hunting Expeditions.

Charleston, Ill., Jan. 17.—Bob Decker, a young sportsman of Tusculum, Ill., has succeeded in taming two wolves, and they are very valuable as hunters. He captured them when young, raised as "kittens," and now, though as large as shepherd dogs, they are quite tame.

TO MARRY OLD LOVE. It Was Expressed Wish of Dying Wife.

New York, Jan. 17.—Miss Mary E. Morrison, of this city, will, on Feb. 6, marry a man to whom she has been faithful for sixteen years, though he had married another.

Twenty years ago John W. Dowling, then 20 years old, fell in love with Miss Morrison, two years younger. Her parents thought favorably of him, but would not consent to an early marriage. Dowling was piqued, and about that time met Miss Anna Paisley, of Goshen, N. Y. A brief courtship and a hasty marriage resulted, but, although his married life was happy, Dowling resumed his old courtship of Miss Morrison, who, of course, had not been informed of his marriage. After a couple of years Dowling found that his dual role of husband and lover was too strenuous, so he decamped and deserted his family.

Friends, in investigating his disappearance, discovered the double existence he had led, and informed both his wife and Miss Morrison. There was an affecting meeting between the two. Miss Morrison said she would never see Dowling again, and the wife sent a message of forgiveness to him.

So Dowling returned, and in the years that followed his wife never reproached him, but often told him that if anything happened to her she wanted him to ask Miss Morrison to marry him and be a mother to his children.

A year ago Mrs. Dowling died, and Dowling, after a decent time, wrote to Miss Morrison, asking her to marry him. In reply she said: "I had long ago forgiven you. I am glad time has made you a better man."

And so the wedding day is set.

HEIR TO A MILLION."Old John" Notified of His Good Luck.

Crystal Falls, Mich., Jan. 17.—John Barber, an old resident of the city, is advised by letter from Austria that he has fallen heir to a fortune left him by an uncle. He leaves today for his native land to claim the estate, the value of which is said to be $100,000. Barber is a well-known character about Crystal Falls and is familiarly known as "Old John."

RATHBONE ON STANDSays His Superiors Knew Of All His Expenditures.*Military Officers Furnished Residences From Government Funds.*Postoffice Officials Worried By the Expenses of Witnesses.

Havana, Jan. 17.—At the trial of the charges growing out of the Cuban postal frauds yesterday, the examination of Estes G. Rathbone, ex-director general of posts of Cuba, was concluded. Counsel for W. H. Reeves, ex-deputy auditor for Cuba, requested the privilege of cross-examining Rathbone, which was accorded.

Rathbone was questioned further relative to the furnishing of his residence in 21 Cerro, Havana, from the postal funds. He said he could not have been expected to furnish his official residence from private funds; that he had not known how long he was going to remain in Havana, and that Gen. John R. Brooke, ex-military governor of Cuba, and Gen. William Ludlow, ex-military governor of the city of Havana, had furnished their official residences from government funds.

Rathbone said his superiors knew of his expenditures in this respect and had not made objection thereto, and that these bills were only for money spent for house furnishing and not on his private account. The examination of a bill from a New York department store showed that fifty pairs of hose, which it was alleged Rathbone bought for his private use, read "fifty feet of hose." The examination of Rathbone brought out any strong points for the government, the matters touched upon involving only small amounts compared with the large amount of embezzlement alleged and believed to be out of proportion to the sentence asked for by the court.

The matter of the expenses of the witnesses who have been brought here from the United States to testify in these cases is now worrying the postoffice officials. The clerk of a New York hotel, who was brought here to show that Rathbone had lived extravagantly while at his hotel, has asked for $40 a day for expenses, while the extras charged bring the total for two weeks to about $1000.

ALCOHOLIC POISON.Woman Found Dead Imbued Too Much Punch.

Red Wing, Minn., Jan. 17.—Official investigation just completed shows that Mrs. Mary Norlie, who was found dead near Sogn, presumably murdered, had been treated to alcohol punch by some young men and died from alcoholic poisoning. The coroner's jury returned a verdict of manslaughter.

JENKINS GETS IT.McKinley's Old Desk Drawn By Wisconsin Man.

Chippewa Falls, Wis., Jan. 17.—In the distribution of the old desks for twenty-five years in use in the house of representatives, the Wisconsin man, James McKinley, Jr., has drawn the great prize, desk No. 99, the identical piece of furniture used by Mr. McKinley during his long term of service in the house. It will become permanently a part of the household effects of Congressman Jenkins.

Poison Oak Poison Ivy

are among the best known of the many dangerous wild plants and shrubs which are to be found in the woods and fields. To touch or handle them quickly produces swelling and inflammation with intense itching and burning of the skin. The eruption soon disappears, but the sufferer hopes forever; but almost as soon as the little blisters and pustules appeared the poison had reached the blood, and will break out at regular intervals and each time in a more aggravated form. This poison will enter the system for years, and every atom of it must be forced out of the blood before you can expect a perfect, permanent cure.

SSS Nature's Antidote FOR Nature's Poisons.

is the only cure for Poison Oak, Poison Ivy, and all noxious plants. It is composed exclusively of roots and herbs. Now is the time to get the poison out of your system, as delay makes your condition worse. Don't experiment longer with salves, washes and soaps—they never cure.

Mr. S. M. Marshall, bookkeeper of the Atlanta Light & Cold Storage Co., was poisoned with Poison Oak, took SSS, and applied externally numerous lotions and washes with no benefit. At times the swelling and inflammation was so severe he was unable to move. He took SSS, and in a few days the swelling cleared his blood of the poison, and all evidences of the disease disappeared.

People are often poisoned without knowing when or how. Explain your case fully to our physicians, and they will cheerfully give such information and advice as you require, without charge, and we will send at the same time an interesting book on Blood and Skin Diseases.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

Are Quick To SeeGood Doctors Are Quick To See and Appreciate Real Merit In New Medicines.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a discovery of great value to the medical profession and the public. They are an unfailing specific in all cases of dyspepsia and digestive disorders. Almost everybody's digestion is disordered some time or other, and the commonest thing they do for it is to take some one of the many so-called blood purifiers, which in many cases are merely strong cathartics. Such things are not needed. If the organs are in a clogged condition, they need only a little help and they will right themselves. Cathartics irritate the sensitive linings of the stomach and bowels and often do more harm than good. Fasting is not what is needed. The thing to do is to put the food in condition to be readily digested and assimilated. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do this perfectly. They partly digest what is eaten and give the stomach just the help it needs. They stimulate the secretion and exertion of the digestive fluids and relieve the congested condition of the glands and membranes. They put the whole digestive system in condition to do its work. When that is done you need take no more tablets, unless you eat what does not agree with you. Then take one or two tablets—give them needed help and you will have no trouble.

It is common sense medicine and a common sense treatment and it will cure every time. Not only cure the disease, but cure the cause. Goes about it in a perfectly sensible and scientific way. We have testimonials enough to fill a book, but we don't publish many of them. Mrs. E. M. Faith, of Byrd's Creek, W. Va., writes: "I have taken Stuart's Tablets for of you and they have done their work well in my case. I feel like a different person altogether. I don't doubt if I had not got them I should have been at rest by this time."

H. E. Willard, Onslow, Ind., says: "Mr. Brooks, Detroit, Mich., says: 'Your Dyspepsia Tablets have cured me of my case. I suffered for years from dyspepsia, but am now entirely cured and enjoy life as I never have before.' I gladly recommend them."

It will cost 50c to find out just how much Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will help you. Try them—that's the best way to decide. All druggists sell them. A little book on stomach diseases will be mailed free by addressing F. Stuart, Inc., Marshall, Mich.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

Mrs. Pike Dyke, a wealthy reclusive living at Lansing, Wis., was found dead at her home. She had been dead some time, and the body was partly eaten by rats. Near her was found a box containing a large sum of money.

Fire was discovered on the big bridge of the Central American coast, near the town of San Salvador, a fast express train, The bridge, which was mostly on the road, was wrecked, entailing a loss of thousands of dollars.

Fire destroyed a story brick building occupied by the American Buggy company, located at Kalamazoo. The building covered an area of 200 feet and 200 men were employed by the company. The loss is estimated at $200,000 and the insurance will only partially cover it.

Team of Horses Lost Through St. Louis Bay Ice.

Current Made Ice Thin and Team Went Through.

Live Notes From the Western End of the City.

A team of horses belonging to a man in West Duluth, whose name could not be learned this morning, was drowned in St. Louis bay off the foot of Fifty-seventh avenue west yesterday afternoon. The team went through the ice over the channel, where the freezing process has been very slow on account of the current and the ice was comparatively thin. Two teams broke through the ice, but through the efforts of the teamsters, two of the horses were pulled out.

For some days past about ten teams have been engaged in drawing over the ice from New Duluth to West Superior a large amount of timber that George Tupper of New Duluth, took out of the old bridges that formerly formed part of the line of the old Duluth & Winnipeg road. Mr. Tupper bought the timber on contract and had sold it to West Superior parties. From the fact that the river and bay were frozen hauling from New Duluth was made very easy and yesterday was the first time there has been an accident. The ice is quite thick in the river and bay except at a few points where the current from the river is swift. Even in those places it is frozen over and it is difficult to tell when it is dangerous.

SCANLON IS GROWING. O. J. Scanlon, of Scanlon, was a visitor here yesterday. As usual, Mr. Scanlon brought an enthusiastic account of the growth of the new town. He says sleeping accommodations for the men at work in the mill are limited, but a large number of houses are going up and conditions will be better before spring. The mill ran out of logs Wednesday evening and the night crew was laid off for a few days, but the two shifts will be working next week.

ONLY A LOOK.

Words Could Not Do the Subject Justice.

New York, Jan. 17.—A Washington dispatch to the World says: "At the dinner given by Postmaster General and Mrs. Smith at the Arlington President and Mrs. Roosevelt arrived a little late. In his hurry to reach the elevator the president stepped upon the beautiful trailing gown of Mrs. Roosevelt. There was a sound of ripping and tearing, and then an awful silence. Mrs. Roosevelt gave her impetuous husband a reproachful look, but not a word was exchanged, except the 'Pardon me, dear,' of the president. With the assistance of a maid the robe was adjusted. Mrs. Roosevelt's gown was one of the most exquisite she has yet worn. It was of fine French lace, with the design outlined in silver and pearls. Panels of turquoise velvet covered the skirt and the corsage was of blue."

TRADE IN MEXICO

Gains That Have Been Made By the United States.

Fifty Years Ago British Houses Controlled the Trade.

Interesting Report By British Consul at City of Mexico.

From The Herald Washington Bureau.

Washington, Jan. 17.—(Special to The Herald.)—The gains which the United States is making in supplying Mexico with the articles which it imports from foreign countries are sharply called to the attention of English manufacturers and exporters by the British consul at the City of Mexico, who, in his report on the trade of Mexico for the year 1900 says:

Fifty years ago, and even less, the greater part of the trade of Mexico was carried on by British houses, the heads of many of them having retired on a fair fortune. As late as 1827 the British trade with Mexico was in a fairly flourishing condition, but from the date of the opening of the Mexican Central and Mexican National railways, the American manufacturers and exporters increased their trade with this country. Today the British trade is confined to a few agencies (there being no important commercial establishments) who by means of samples and catalogues undertake the execution of orders. Some of these agencies are persons who are acquainted with the country or with the customs, and find it very difficult to do business with the people. There are, however, a few who are active and by accommodating themselves to their surroundings can get good orders for the firms they represent. The example of these few might serve as an incentive to others.

Some of the large houses in Manchester, Birmingham and other centers often employ commercial travelers who make periodical visits to this country, and who can always count on their usual customers for orders. Other houses send out representatives, frequently foreigners, who in many cases are unacquainted with the country, language, the people and their customs, and after a short stay during which they are unable to get any orders they return home disgusted. Mexico is a market very different from ordinary large towns, as on account of its cosmopolitan nature and the few foreigners resident here it does not afford the facilities and comforts of European towns of the same size, and then also, on account of certain conditions peculiar to its inhabitants, the demand for articles of long standing whose utility is well known is greater than for modern inventions that take a long time to conquer the ideas of the people.

If the British manufacturer or trader wishes to open or increase his trade with this country it is imperative for him to adopt other methods, and first of all consult the wishes of his customers before forcing upon them articles that in his opinion might appear suitable but are not so in the market. As can be seen from the foregoing remarks some of the same openings still exist, but in a smaller degree, as American merchants are pushing their trade very considerably, by establishing agencies in the country, or else by means of companies of Mexican and giving information about new enterprises and the establishment of new factories, as well as other information about the country. There are certain points, however, that have been very much overlooked by the great factors in their dealings with Mexico, their lack of knowledge of the Mexican tariff being very noticeable. Still another point that deserves the attention of the British trader in general is the failure to give estimates or descriptions when asked for in such cases an order may depend upon a full and intelligible description being given to the would-be customer in the weights and measures of the metric system that is now so universally accepted.

As mentioned on former occasions an institution like the army or navy or civil service stores, where goods of purely British manufacture could be obtained, would certainly be the best means of advancing British interests, but such an institution would have to be overlooked by a British subject who, as well as being a capable man, would also combine a knowledge of trade with a knowledge of the language, people, and customs of this country. One of the principal objects of such an establishment would be to make the representative of a very inferior quality. These same remarks apply to the case of the American trader, who, by joining together, could easily afford to support an establishment of the kind mentioned they could, by perseverance, succeed in making it a very worthy and profitable enterprise.

To show that this is possible a similar case has been mentioned in America from some three or four years ago established a small office to represent one or two of the states in the Southern States. It is now in the treaty to undertake the representation of several different manufacturing establishments. If this is the case for American merchants, now is the time for the British manufacturer to come forward and make the same, but in order to compete with Mexico's Northern neighbors he must change his old methods.

Secretary Gage has submitted an estimate to congress providing for the employment of necessary fire patrols on certain Indian lands in Minnesota in the sum of $100. It is approved by Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

The Cass Lake people, who are pressing for legislation for opening up agriculture in the lake region, are now represented by Editor Bernard of the Walker Press and Deputy Marshal Warren, of Cass Lake. Those gentlemen are in a petition in favor of Judge Morris' bill, but they will continue to be a menace to the establishment of a permanent providing for a reserve of 10,000 acres under federal supervision. Mr. Bernard will appear before the committee on Indian affairs at St. Paul, and will represent the views of the Cass Lake people. He will request Senator McKinnon to support the bill.

Members of the delegation to be present.

THE DAKOTAS

Young Woman Deserted By Her Sweetheart Becomes Insane.

SOUTH DAKOTA. Sioux Falls.—An unusually sad romance is revealed by the action of the county board of insanity in declaring insane Miss Helen Bye. She is a daughter of Tolle J. Bye, a well-known resident of the county. Not long ago her sweetheart, Miss Helen Bye, was given a divorce from her husband, and she was taken with a violent attack of brain fever. She has been taken to the state asylum at Yankton.

Deadwood.—John Rollert and Patrick Connors, who have been employed on the Great Northern, were given a divorce from their wives by the county board of insanity. The former had a badly mutilated leg, necessitating amputation, and the latter fractured his skull and it is feared he may be permanently impaired mentally.

Tankton.—The old custom of showering rice upon a newly married couple resulted in serious trouble to the bride of Golly Hart, of Marion, a few days ago. When the couple boarded the train for their honeymoon trip they were given a liberal shower of rice. A grain of it lodged in Golly's eye, and he has been unable to see since.

Olson.—Vernon Olson, who died at the naval hospital, San Francisco, on the ship, will be buried here this week. He served with distinction under Admiral Schley, in the Brooklyn, at Santiago.

WOMEN'SCOUNCIL*Hears Talks About Street*Cleaning From City

Officers.

H. C. Helm and C. W.

Wilson Speak.

Women Will Take aHand to Make*Clean City.

The third of the meetings that have been inaugurated by the Women's Council of Duluth, for the purpose of gaining information of the methods by which the city affairs are run and with the ultimate purpose of suggesting to the women of the city how they can best bring about a cleaner and more attractive condition of the streets, avenues and yards, was held at the Sualding this morning.

That the sentiment toward a cleaner city that has been suggested by the council is growing, was shown by the large attendance of the women at this morning's meeting. The full representation of every club that has thus far identified itself with the council was present. The council is very anxious that any other women's club or organization in Duluth that has an interest in a cleaner city shall send delegates to the council meetings.

The women have adopted a conservative and safe course in acquiring their information and believe that it is a matter in which haste should be made slowly.

No plan of action has yet been outlined, but it is the sentiment of the women interested that the city has efficient officials that are paid to look after the details and will not let the purpose of the women to usurp the work of such officials, they believe they can greatly facilitate the work of bringing about a cleaner and more attractive city by creating a public sentiment entirely in sympathy with the line of action of the officials, and it is doubtless along this line that the women will begin to direct their efforts when they are ready.

As an instance it has been suggested that the women can take up the matter of business houses along the principal streets making a practice of throwing the sweepings from the stores and sidewalks into the street. The women could form a vigilance committee that might be effective in making complaints and bringing offenders to justice.

At the meeting this morning three of the city officers appeared before the council and gave interesting talks along the line of the work of interest to each department represented.

Dr. Robinson, the city health officer, gave the women an outline of the work of his department along sanitary conditions in the city, and H. C. Helm, secretary of the park commission, talked of the methods by which the setting out of trees along the streets could be brought about. He said among other things that if one of the property owners along the street petitioned the board through the council to have shade trees set out along the street, it could be accomplished by the board; that unless this petition is made, the board can not set trees only at the instance of individual owners and in front of their property.

President C. W. Wilson of the board of public works was another speaker at the council meeting. He said:

"The question of cleaning a city is a matter of great importance to the people, and should be taken up and dealt with accordingly. It is a problem that all municipalities have struggled with and experimented with for years and years; different systems have been in use, and, from time to time, it has been found necessary to change according to increase in population.

"The cleaning of the streets of the city of Duluth is a duty imposed upon the board of public works by the city charter, but the board is very often handicapped on account of the lack of funds. The recommendations of the board for increased appropriations of money for cleaning and repairs of the streets, have been overlooked in the interest of low taxation. This year the board has secured an increase in the appropriation, and the renewal of the paving on some of our principal streets will mean a great deal for the city.

Efficient cleaning done in our city, and as fast as the new and modern improvements of the streets and the cleaning of the streets will follow.

"The method employed by the board for cleaning the streets of this city, it is the same as that in vogue in most of the large cities, namely, the hand broom and the machine. The hand broom is used in the morning and the machine

The American rinks deferred to the Canadians yesterday afternoon in the bospital, and the Canadian women again have, thus won the Walkerville International trophy for this year.

This was the greatest event of the bospital thus far, and the largest crowd of the week was in attendance. The platforms down the center were filled with the galleries, each side of the rink. The platforms at the center were also packed. A large portion of the audience consisted of ladies; in fact, throughout the bospital the women have been among the most enthusiastic of the spectators. The crowd was so large that the good shots almost as well as the curlers themselves, and they manifested the greatest interest in the progress of the game.

Throughout the afternoon a band played merrily, rendering the national airs of both countries.

The women were quite apprehensive

VISITORS ENTERTAINED

Given an Informal Reception at Kitchi Gammi Club.

Last evening at the Kitchi Gammi club the visitors were tendered an entertainment by the Duluth curlers, a team about as happy an occasion Duluth has ever seen. It was the night of the concert which Duluth is making all week. Old veterans who have been going to conspicious years, pronounce this as fine, in every way, as any they have ever seen. The entertainment was an information. It was intended to furnish opportunity for the Duluthians and outsiders to meet and get acquainted. The purpose was entirely allied. A program of songs, stories, was given, and the numbers delighted everyone.

Dr. Arnold delivered an address welcome and regaled the curlers with some of his choicest wit and jolly stories.

Dr. C. Arnold of St. Paul, president of the Northwestern association, responded briefly, thanking Duluth for the entertainment of the association and the success of the concert.

A number of the curlers were called upon and made brief remarks, the general tenor of all of which was that this was a great bonspiel in every way, perfect ice, the finest club house in the country, and thorough hospitality. Among those who spoke were E. E. Redmond, J. Fort Williams; Alex. B. Bledsoe, J. H. Riehlhardt, of Minneapolis, and Otto Fowle, of Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.

Songs were given by L. R. Alexander, P. M. Will Cleland, Cyril T. T. Smith Hawthorne and C. H. Bledsoe of Chicago. Mr. Bledsoe has a magnificent tenor voice, sweet, clear and melodious. He has just given a great contribution. Every one of the numbers, however, had a tremendous hit, and this was always a general clamor for more.

FERRY BILL IN HOUSE

Duluth Measure Passed Without Opposition.

The Chinese Exclusion Bill Is Presented.

Washington, Jan. 18.—When the house convened today, Mr. Joy (Mo.), chairman of the committee on accounts, precipitated a discussion involving some of the patronage of the house by presenting a resolution providing for the appointment of two additional messengers. The resolution, after explanation, was adopted. Mr. Cannon, chairman of the committee on appropriations, reported an urgency deficiency bill and gave notice that next Monday he would call it up for consideration. He explained that the bill carried appropriations aggregating more than $15,000,000. In answer to an inquiry he expressed the opinion that near the close of the present session of congress it would be necessary to pass another urgency deficiency bill. He could not say how much the next bill might carry.

A bill authorizing the city of Duluth, Minn., to construct a car transfer or aerial ferry across the Duluth canal was passed.

Other bills were passed as follows: For the protection of towns in the Indian territory and providing that they may issue bonds to an amount not exceeding five mills on each dollar of taxable property of the municipality for the construction of sewers, waterworks and school houses; providing that the amount of the official bond of the United States marshal of Alaska may be increased to $75,000 in certain circumstances.

The senate amendments to the house bill appropriating $30,000 for a government exhibit and floor space at the Charleston exposition were agreed to, and the bill passed.

Representative Kahn (Cal.) introduced the Chinese exclusion bill agreed upon by all Pacific coast interests as representing their views. It was referred to the foreign affairs committee and Mr. Kahn says hearings will begin next week and the bill urged to speedy consideration in the house.

The house then, at 12:43, on motion of Mr. Payne, adjourned until Monday.

GENERAL WILSON.

CAPTAIN CLARK.

WHITELAW REID.

THREE OF UNCLE SAM'S REPRESENTATIVES AT THE CORONATION OF KING EDWARD.

WU ASKS FOR MONEY

Is Authorized to Receive Value of the Silver Bullion Captured By American Marines— He Will Get It.

Washington, Jan. 18.—Minister Wu called upon Secretary Hay today in connection with the restoration to the Chinese government of the value of the silver bullion amounting to $275,000, which was captured by the American marines at Tien Tsin, forming part of the revenues of the salt customs. This money had been restored long ago, and indeed Secretary Long had contemplated turning it over soon after it fell into the possession of the marines, but in the disorganized state of the Chinese government there was no official to whom it could be handed. Minister Wu has now been authorized by his government to receive this money, and it will be given to him in the shape of a check on the treasury which the money is deposited, which may be readily exchanged for bills on Shanghai.

REVOLUTIONISTS WIN

Have Twice Defeated the Government Forces of Venezuela—New Insurrections Break Out In Different Places.

New York, Jan. 18.—According to the latest advice from Venezuela, the revolutionary force under Gen. Codeno has twice defeated the government troops in the state of Carabobo, cables the Port of Spain, Trinidad, correspondent of the Herald.

A new insurrection has been started near Carupano under the leadership of Gen. Vasquez.

Gen. Batalla and Lorenzo Lima have taken up arms against Castro in the state of Zamora.

The Venezuelan revolutionary steamship Libertador, formerly the Danriger, has made two successful landings of arms and ammunition and is moving around the coast of Venezuela without being molested. It is said that she steamed close to Puerto Cabello in full view of a government gunboat, which remained inactive.

It is reported that the revolutionary troops under Gen. Ducharme have been defeated by a government force.

FATAL RESULT OF DUEL

Hanover, Prussia, Jan. 18.—Herr Von Bennigsen, landrath of Hanover, a son of the noted politician Rudolf Von Bennigsen died during the night as the result of a bullet wound in the breast, sustained in a duel fought on Thursday last with Herr Falkenhagen, a tenant of the royal estate near Springe.

The duel was the outcome of the intimacy of Herr Falkenhagen with Frau Von Bennigsen. The club to which Herr Von Bennigsen belonged informed him of the stories in circulation. On Monday Frau Von Bennigsen visited Hanover and returned to Springe in the evening, accompanied by Herr Von Falkenhagen. The next morning Herr Von Bennigsen ordered his wife to leave his house and then challenged Herr Falkenhagen. The conditions of the duel were three rounds with pistols at ten paces. Herr Von Bennigsen, who was short-sighted, was shot in the first round. His brother witnessed the duel.

A SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Astoria, Ore., Jan. 18.—Frank Rakowski, a soldier in the United States army, was today degraded at Fort Canby and sentenced to ten years' imprisonment in the military prison on Alcatraz island, Cal. Rakowski had threatened to assassinate President Roosevelt.

Rakowski was a member of Capt. Cloke's company stationed at Fort Stevens. He was on detached duty at Fort Columbia, Wash., when he voiced the anarchist sentiment, and after arrest by the civil authorities was turned over to the military officials at Fort Canby. He was tried before a general court-martial.

A few days before Christmas, Rakowski became intoxicated at Chinook, and while in a saloon there made the following statement:

"President McKinley got what he deserved. My time of enlistment in the army will soon expire and when it does, I'll see that President Roosevelt gets the same dose that Czolgosz gave McKinley." Rakowski's sentence is dishonorable discharge, forfeiture of all pay and allowances and confinement in the military prison at Alcatraz island for a period of ten years.

Capt. Cloke stated that he knew little of Rakowski except that he formerly resided on Milwaukee avenue, Chicago.

Portland, Ore., Jan. 18.—Frank Rakowski, the degraded soldier who threatened the life of President McKinley, passed through this city last night, under guard. He was short-sighted, was shot in the first round of ten years on Alcatraz island.

BOYS CHARGED WITH KILLING

Hudson, N. Y., Jan. 18.—In the supreme court today the grand jury brought in an indictment for murder in the first degree against Willis, Fred and Burton Van Woormer and Harvey Bruce for killing Peter A. Hallenbeck, at Greenport on Christmas eve. The prisoners were arraigned and pleaded not guilty. The trial will probably take place at the May term of the supreme court. Hallenbeck was the uncle of the Van Woormers.

MANY NAMES

On the Boer Petitions Circulated By Webster Davis.

Kansas City, Jan. 18.—Webster Davis started for New York last night with a petition carrying the signatures of 213,004 citizens of the South and West, which eventually are to go before congress asking for national sympathy for the Boers. These signatures have been received in answer to an appeal sent out by Mr. Davis some four months ago, and are addressed to the several congressmen, asking them to vote for a resolution already framed for them. The petition asks congress to declare:

"That the people of the United States feel a strong sympathy with the people of the South African Republic and the Orange Free State; that they are pained by the report of the present sufferings of their christian people, and they unite in the hope that their duty to make, will be favorably considered by the government of Great Britain in a settlement of their unfortunate differences."

Mr. Davis will not deliver the petition in Washington himself, but intends to turn it over to the Boer consul in New York, by him to be placed in the proper hands. The documents are in sheet form, foolscap size, and when packed for transit filled four steamer trunks.

BOUNDARY

Between Chili and Argentina to Be Investigated at Once.

New York, Jan. 18.—It is announced that Sir Thomas Hungerford Hilditch, the geographical expert appointed by the British government to investigate the boundary question between Argentina and Chili, will start on Jan. 30 from England for South America, cables the Herald's Valparaiso, Chili, correspondent.

During his surveys he will receive no suggestions from either the Argentine or the Chilean commissions, so that his work will be of an entirely independent nature.

The session of the Chilean congress has closed.

DID NOTHING.

Maher and Sharkey Not Guilty of Prize Fighting.

Philadelphia, Jan. 18.—Peter Maher and Tom Sharkey, who were arrested yesterday at the instance, it is alleged, of the law and order society and held in $5000 bail to keep the peace, appeared at the magistrate's office this morning and were discharged. James H. MacFarland, the promoter of last night's bout, who was also under bond, was released. The magistrate announced that as the men had not committed any overt act which might be construed as a violation of the statute prohibiting prize fighting there was no complaint against them.

TENDERS INVITED.

Glasgow, Jan. 18.—The British government has invited tenders on the Clyde for ten torpedo boat destroyers, larger and stronger but slower than those heretofore built. The idea of the government is that the deduction of speed to twenty-five knots will be more than compensated for by superior power, more reliability and greater capacity.

CORELLI CAPS CLIMAX

The Authoress Adds to the Anti-German Feeling In England By Illusions to Uniforms and Postage Stamps.

London, Jan. 18.—Marie Corelli in a letter to a paper, caps the climax of the anti-German feeling existing in England. The authoress declaims passionately against the similarity of the new British army uniforms with those of the German army. "Bearing in mind," she writes, "the absolutely criminal offense against our king by the vile prints circulated in Germany is it justifiable to insult our brave officers by compelling them to wear any uniform even remotely resembling that worn by admitted slanders of our king, army and country?"

Marie Corelli adds that it is scarcely necessary to add life to the "widespread indignation which prevails everywhere at the color and design of the new postage stamps, which are so essentially German in appearance."

THOUGHT GAME FAIR

Two Men Hold Up Inmates of a Gambling House to Recover the Money That They Had Lost There.

Omaha, Neb., Jan. 18.—Two robbers held up a dozen men in a gambling room over the saloon of Cliff Cole, at Fourteenth and Douglas streets at 4 o'clock this morning and secured the cash box and $200 in money from the customers of the place. They were captured ten minutes later by a squad of police. They gave the names of Frank Williams and Frank Jones.

The robbery was a bold one, occurring in the heart of the city, and neither of the men was masked. They drew revolvers and ordered the men to hold up their hands. After securing their money and the cash box of the concern they rushed down stairs into Douglas street where a policeman gave chase, firing several shots after them.

A riot call was turned in to the station and a wagon load of policemen was sent to the scene. One of the robbers ran out of an alley and into the arms of a policeman. The other was found in a hallway. At the station both men admitted their identity and said they had lost their money in the place and thought their game was as fair as that of the gambling house. All of the stolen money taken from the cash box was found on the men.

THINKS HE HAS PAT CROWE

Creede, Colo., Jan. 18.—District Attorney James D. Pilcher has telegraphed Chief of Police J. J. Donahue, of Omaha, that Edwin V. Wilber, who is held a prisoner here to answer charges of swindling and forgery, may be Pat

Crowe, who is charged with having been one of the kidnaping gang who stole young Cudahy at Omaha. It is known that Wilber was associated with a person of the identical description of the man Donahue described as "No. 2."

DR. KRAUSE GETS TWO YEARS

London, Jan. 18.—The lord chief justice, Baron Alverson, to day sustained the contention of the defense of Dr. Krause that the charge of inciting to murder must fall as there was no evidence that the letters in the case had reached Brockman, but held that the question of "attempting to persuade" must go to the jury.

Dr. Krause was found guilty and sentenced to two years' imprisonment.

THIEF HID IN CONFESSIONAL

Chicago, Jan. 18.—A woman giving her name as Annie Jones, whose presence had become known through the noise she made in breaking open a collection box, was found hiding in a confession booth in St. Joseph's French Catholic church last night.

The janitor was at work in the basement of the edifice when he heard a noise. Accompanied by the pastor he made a search of the church and found the woman concealed in the confession booth. She was taken to the police station and was bled on the charge of burglary.

MINERS LOSE LIVES BY GAS

Victor, Colo., Jan. 18.—John Warner and Gus Peterson, miners, lost their lives in the May B mine while being lowered in a bucket to the bottom of the shaft. They were Both men were about 30 years of age and single. Reports from different parts of the district show that the prevalence of gas is quite general, due to changes in the atmosphere.

BLOWN TO ETERNITY

Engine Explodes, Throw- ing Train From Track.

Engineer and Fireman Killed, Others Injured.

Des Moines, Jan. 18.—A special from Victor, Iowa, says: As the Denver limited passenger train No. 5 of the Rock Island was passing through this town this morning at 5.55, the boiler of engine No. 503 exploded, resulting in the death of the engineer and fireman and slight injuries to two porters and a brakeman. The killed are:

W. WILLIAMS, of Brooklyn, Iowa, engineer.

E. HOAR, of Valley Junction, Iowa, fireman.

The accident took place within 250 feet of the depot, and the noise of the explosion aroused the whole town. The force of the explosion threw every one of the seven coaches of the train from the track, but only overturned the Des Moines Pullman. Fortunately, the passengers were uninjured. Pieces of the wrecked engine were strewn around to a distance of 200 feet, and the boiler was found 150 feet away from the scene of the accident. The causes leading up to the explosion will never be known, owing to the death of the engineer and fireman. Superintendent Lawrence of this division arrived in a special at 8 o'clock from Des Moines. He refused to make any statement with regard to the accident. The bodies of the engineer and fireman were horribly mangled, and were found only a short distance away.

Train No. 5 does not stop at Victor. This morning the limited passed through the village at a speed of forty miles an hour. Three hundred feet west of the station begins a slight down grade, which extends a mile to Carnforth, where the Rock Island crosses Bear creek. On this grade the accident occurred.

Chicago, Jan. 18.—The official statement, given out at the general offices of the Rock Island, says the engine of the train leaving Chicago at 10 o'clock last night "dropped her crown sheet" at Victor, wrecking the engine and throwing the baggage car, buffet and four sleepers on their sides. Engineer W. Williams and his fireman (name unknown) were instantly killed and Baggage-master Shaffer was injured. The passengers escaped without injury.

TO CARNEGIE'S ISLAND

Heirs of Robert Stafford Lay Claim, and Suit Will Be Brought For the Property, Valued at $2,000,000.

New York, Jan. 18.—Andrew Carnegie will be made a party to a suit for property valued at $2,000,000, which will be brought against the wife of his brother by heirs of Robert Stafford, the Sea Island cotton king, says the World. Papers in the action have been prepared in this city. The suit will be to secure title to Cumberland island, off the coast of Georgia, which Mr. Carnegie and his sister-in-law have made a beautiful park and mid-sea home. The fact that the Stafford heirs had any claim to the property was discovered by accident. In the papers on file in the case it is alleged that Robt. Stafford bought the island now in dispute in 1848. He had $300 at that time and went to the island to raise cotton. In the second year of his work there he was married. His wife was Elizabeth Barnaby, famed as "the white slave." She was employed by a Georgia planter and her ancestor were white, but she had been sold into slavery and action was pending at the time to secure her freedom. Robert Stafford fell in love with her, purchased her freedom and made her his wife. It is the descendants of this woman and Robert Stafford who are now contending for the $2,000,000.

Robert Stafford died in New London, Conn., about fifteen years ago. He left four daughters, Mrs. Mary Palmer, wife of Dr. Palmer, of New London; Ada, Countess Zivukli of Paris; Mrs. Madara Vosburg, of New York, and Mrs. Frederick P. Engel, of Lynbrook, L. I.

The property was sold by an executor of the Stafford estate. Attorneys made a trip to St. Marys, where the deed was on file. The deed is clearly defective they say. The Carnegies paid $45,000 for the island.

RELY ON THE TURBINE

New Trans-Atlantic Steamship Company Promises to Cut Down Trip Across the Atlantic to Practically Four Days.

New York, Jan. 18.—To clip from 24 to 36 hours from the record time for crossing the Atlantic is the promise of the New York and European Steamship company, a new trans-Atlantic steamship line, which offers assurance of a speedy fulfillment of its pledge, says the Tribune. This company which has already applied for pier privileges in this city and formulated the larger part of its plans, expects by the substitution of the turbine engine for that now in use, to secure a speed of thirty knots an hour in its new boats. Such a speed will mean that passengers can be carried from this country to Europe in a little more than four days. The success that has attended the use of the turbine engine in Europe and especially the remarkable speed that has been secured has naturally raised the question as to its adaptability for trans-Atlantic steamers. In this city a strong company has been organized and plans have been pretty well completed for this new line. To cut off a day in the time of crossing the Atlantic will mean to bring enormous profits to the line, and those which are beginning to pass through from Australia and the far East, will naturally go to the company that can handle them quickest. Delivered at Queenstown these mails could, according to the plan of the New York and European company, be carried in three days from the present time. Of the importance and value of the turbine engine, Professor R. H. Thurston recently spoke at length before the society of mechanical engineers.

THROWN FROM A TRUCK

Chicago, Jan. 18.—When responding to an alarm of fire six members of truck company No. 17 were hurled from the wagon by the breaking of an axle. Two of the men were buried beneath the wagon and both were severely injured. One of them may die. Four were bruised severely. The injured men are: John Green, driver, Ninety-third street and Stony Island avenue, internally injured, gashed about head and right hand broken, probably will die; Michael Canty, 243 Ninety-third street, right leg and three ribs broken, injured internally, condition serious; Lieut. Daniel McNamara, bruised about body and head cut; Julius Travis, face and hands cut and bruised; Herman Brandenberg, shoulder dislocated, face and hands cut; Alex. Alexson, bruised about body, wrist dislocated and face cut.

THE BABY WAS CONSUMED

Springfield, Ohio, Jan. 18.—A fire which started in the house of Earl Spears at Harmony, a small town seven miles east of this city, destroyed the house and contents and burned to death the 2-year-old daughter. Four children were sleeping in the room in which the fire started. The father heard his eldest daughter scream and hurried to the rescue. He succeeded in getting three of the children out of the house and was himself badly burned in the effort. Just as he started in after the baby the roof fell in and the child was consumed by the flames.

ORDWAY GETS IT

The St. Paul Skip Captures the St. Paul Jobbers' Trophy.

Lucky Shot On Last End Takes It From Hoffman.

The Bonspiel Will Not Be Concluded Before Monday.

A fluke shot won the St. Paul Jobbers' trophy for L. P. Ordway, of St. Paul, this morning in the bonspiel. He was playing against C. W. Hoffman, of Winnipeg, and the score on the eleventh end was tied. On the twelfth and last end Hoffman lay shot and fired guard. Ordway tried for a draw, missed, fell against some of the guards in front and wiggled in directly in front of Hoffman's stone, winning out by one point. Hoffman, however, had little cause for complaint, for he let Ordway get five on him in the tenth end by what seemed to the onlookers like poor judgment in the selection of his play.

It was an exciting contest from start to finish, and the St. Paul boys played a great up-hill game. The members of the two rinks are as follows:

St. Paul	Winnipeg
W. J. White	Charles McGregor
D. A. McArthur	Evan Reese
M. Campbell	William Reese
C. W. Hoffman	skil L. P. Ordway, skip.

The score by ends was as follows:

End	St. Paul	Winnipeg
1	0	1
2	0	2
3	0	3
4	0	4
5	0	5
6	0	6
7	0	7
8	0	8
9	0	9
10	0	10
11	0	11
12	1	12

Total..... 12 12

The bonspiel will end Monday. The international event is farthest behind and will not be concluded until then.

The finals in the St. Paul Jobbers' event were to be played this afternoon or evening by W. J. White, of St. Paul and J. Ripley, of Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.

The semi-finals in the Flour City event have been reached, with two Duluth rinks in, W. E. Magnus and Donald Morrison, of Duluth, and J. Ripley, of Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.

The W. D. Stewart rink, of St. Paul, has the greatest record of any at the bonspiel. It has won 13 out of 14 games, 11 out of 14; J. Ripley, of Sault Ste. Marie, 9 out of 12, and S. G. Harstone, of Winnipeg, 9 out of 10, and L. P. Ordway, of St. Paul, have each won 8 out of 12.

A large number of the curlers have already gone home and more will get away before the day is over. Only the winning rinks are now here.

Two rinks were entered in the veterans' match and played this morning. This was one of the interesting games of the bonspiel. One rink was skipped by Col. W. H. Bourke, of Winnipeg, who has just returned from Dawson City, Alaska. His rink was composed of George Black of Winnipeg, lead; A. K. Robson, of Trehearne, Canada, third; W. H. Bourke, skip.

A. W. Meldrum, of Duluth, skipped the other event. He is a veteran of many years' experience, having curled at Winnipeg for a number of years. His rink was composed of C. L. Fredericks, lead; W. C. Sherwood, second; A. W. Meldrum, skip.

It was one of the happiest games of the meeting here, and the veterans had a jolly time throughout the game. Col. Bourke's rink won, the score being 13 to 10.

HEAD TURNED

Clyde Lake's Christmas Present Causes Him Much Trouble.

Minneapolis, Jan. 18.—Clyde Lake, 15 years old, a student at Pillsbury academy, Owatonna, was arrested yesterday at a local theater by Detective Fairbairn. The boy was employed in selling peanuts at the theater, and had been in the city four months. His arrest was the result of instructions received from the academy authorities at Owatonna. He is now at the central station.

Clyde left Owatonna at the commencement of the Christmas vacation, ostensibly to spend the holidays in the cities. The fact that he did not return when school opened occasioned considerable anxiety there, and finally the police here were asked to look for him. A few days ago Detective Fairbairn located a boy answering a description of the Owatonna youth, and yesterday a member of the faculty arrived here and identified him. His arrest followed.

Clyde's home is at Havre, Mont. He is the only son of a widowed mother, and had been a student at Pillsbury since the commencement of the school year.

Shortly before Christmas his mother, finding it inadvisable to let him come home for the vacation, sent him a check for a considerable sum, the check being accompanied by a letter containing moral advice.

The possession of so much money turned Clyde's head, and he promptly forgot his mother's admonitions and took the first train for Minneapolis.

He neglected to provide himself with a return ticket, and after he had been in the city a week, found himself so short of funds that he was unable to get back to Owatonna. At this point the job at the theater presented itself and he went to work.

The Pillsbury authorities yesterday bought him a ticket to Havre and placed him in the care of Matron Schaefer at the Central station. He will be started on his way home today.

An Art Product.

PIANOS

are ideally perfect. In tone, design or construction they have always been far in advance of the "commercially good" pianos of the same period.

Never has a standard of excellence been lowered in the slightest degree to meet the competition of price. Today one of the world's greatest pianos is the Vose.

ALL NEW ENGLANDERS ARE CONGRATULATING S. F. BOYCE, Druggist.

Everybody in Duluth will when they know the facts regarding the history and fame of Smith's Green Mountain Renovator, for which Mr. Boyce has been appointed the exclusive selling agent for this city.

Has it ever been your good fortune to visit Vermont? If so, were you not impressed with the rugged grandeur of the dark forests and fair winding streams?

The very moment you breathed the air, you felt sure it was laden with health and strength.

Did it not occur to you that the vegetation of this locality must partake of the general healthfulness and strength of the natural surroundings?

That was not a visionary theory but an actual fact. Among these hills and mountains are herbs and roots of the highest medicinal value, possessing properties which, when correctly compounded and utilized, are extremely beneficial, strengthening and curative.

It is here that the roots and herbs are secured of which this preparation, the stand-by of New Englanders for many years, is made—Smith's Green Mountain Renovator.

The history dates back many years.

Dr. Donald Mack, an eminent Scotch scientist, was the discoverer. He visited Vermont for health and recreation, and made many experiments with the roots and herbs of Northern Vermont, and found among them the component parts of the best medicines it was possible to produce, and became locally famous in the treatment of nervous diseases, blood troubles, rheumatism, kidney and liver complaints.

The Renovator was originally made for Silas Smith, of East Georgia, Vt., who was cured of a seemingly hopeless case of scrofula ulcer. Mr. Smith secured the formula from Dr. Mack—hence its name, Smith's Green Mountain Renovator.

Mr. Smith prepared it in a small way for many years. Three generations of people in Vermont have owed their health largely to this great medicine.

The present owners of the medicine, who are capitalists, recognizing that it contained every possible element of success, secured the business in 1898, and have since been engaged in placing it upon the market all over the country.

But only through one leading druggist in each city. This is because they will not have it tampered with, nor submit to substitutions of other medicines "just as good."

That is why Mr. S. F. Boyce, the popular and well known druggist of this city has been appointed, and has the following statement to make, as an assurance that he has investigated the truthfulness of the claims as to this great medicine:

"I guarantee every bottle of Smith's Green Mountain Renovator to benefit you or money refunded."

S. F. BOYCE, Druggist, DULUTH, MINNESOTA.

ECONOMY THE WORD

Democratic City Committee Gives Out Its Platform.

Puts Record of Accomplishment Against Record of Evasion.

Promises Vigorous Continuance of Municipal Ownership Policy.

Both political parties are now lined up for the fight for mayor, which begins in earnest on Monday.

It bids fair to be one of the most hotly contested municipal elections on record.

Today the Democratic city committee gave out its platform, as follows:

"The Democratic party of the city of Duluth herewith presents to the voters of Duluth the platform containing the principles and policies of the party on municipal questions, upon which the Democratic candidates for mayor and aldermen ask the support of all citizens at the polls on Feb. 4, 1902.

"The most economical administration in the history of the city of Duluth was that given by the present Democratic candidate for mayor during his former term of office. In the first year of the present Republican administration taxes for city purposes were increased over 20 per cent. The Republican administration 'points with pride' to its record of having itself spent less than it had allotted to itself to spend. The Democratic party is opposed to collecting any more taxes from the people than is absolutely necessary for the administration of the city's affairs, managed with the strictest economy, and deprecates any encouragement to extravagance in order to get rid of unexpended balances.

"TAXATION.

"The greatest evil under our system of taxation as administered today is the unequal distribution among the people of the burdens of government. The Democratic party stands for equal rights to all and special privileges to none, and will apply that principle in the administration of the city assessor's office, by distributing the burdens of taxation among the people in proportion to their wealth.

"THE CITY CHARTER.

"The charter which the affairs of the city are now being conducted was adopted by virtue of the active support of the Democratic party, and in the face of the opposition of the Republican party. The Democratic platform of 1900 endorsed the charter and advocated its adoption; the Republican platform did not. The Democratic city committee of 1900 marked its sameness with the cross (x) in favor of the adoption of the charter; the Republican committee refused to do so. The Democratic city committee of 1900 requested the Republican city committee to join with it in an address to the people recommending the adoption of the charter; the Republican committee refused. The Democratic candidate for mayor in 1900, both before and during the campaign, vigorously advocated the adoption of the charter; the Republican candidate was afraid to do so. Whatever benefits have come to the city by reason of the adoption of the new charter have come in spite of the Republican party and its present candidate for mayor. As the majority candidates this year are the same as those of 1900, we submit to the people their records on this matter and contend that if the new charter is a good thing for the city when it is administered by its enemies, it will be a better thing when administered by its friends.

"We reaffirm our oft-repeated declaration in favor of the 8-hour work day for the employees of the city, and favor the continuance of the free labor bureau in a more convenient location, calling special attention to the fact that such bureau could not have been established by the city had the Republican party succeeded in its attempt to prevent the adoption of the new charter.

"MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP.

"We are in favor of municipal ownership of all public utilities, and advocate that such utilities should be ac-

MAY I SEND YOU A BOOK?

I will mail you any book from the list below if you send me your address.

With it, I will send an order on your nearest drugist for six bottles of Dr. Shoop's Restorative. If you think that your cure is better, sending this book, you are welcome to take it a month at my risk. If it cures, pay your drugist $6.00. If it fails, I will pay him myself.

This remarkable offer is made after a lifetime's experience. I have learned how to strengthen the inside nerves—these nerves lodge almost every vital organ. I make each organ do its duty by bracing them back to their power. No case is too difficult. I take the risk in all.

Eight years, 500,000 people have accepted this offer; and thirty-nine in each forty have been cured. No drugist accepts a penny otherwise. The decision is left with you.

Note that if my Restorative cures, the cost is a trifle. If it fails, it is free. Can you neglect such an offer when thirty-nine out of forty who write me are cured?

Simply state which book you want, and address Dr. Shoop, Box 66, Racine, Wis.

Book No. 1 on Hypertension, Book No. 2 on Kidneys, Book No. 3 on Women, Book No. 4 on Men, Book No. 5 on Rheumatism.

quipped as soon as they seem desirable in the opinion of those whose records bear right when such questions have arisen in the past. We offer a record of promise and performance in the past, against the present Republican candidate's record of promise and evasion.

"The Democratic party in 1900 advocated the erection of an electric street lighting plant, and the people voted $100,000 in bonds for such purpose. The present Republican administration then came into power and nullified the vote of the people by making a five-year contract with the present electric lighting monopoly. If this monopoly can furnish light to the city at a profit, why is it not making a profit from the city under its present contract, every other user of electric light or power in the city has to pay more to make up for the loss. The Democratic party pledges itself to carry out the expressed wish of the voters and build an electric street lighting plant as soon as it again takes charge of the city's business, and to ask the people for authority to extend such street lighting plant to general consumption, thus minimizing the present unfair competition of the electric light company with the city's gas plant and enabling the city to supply electric light at actual cost, in the same way that it has furnished the people with water and gas at actual cost under its former management of the city's business.

"We again call the attention of the voters to the fact that it was under a Democratic administration that the city acquired its present water and gas plant, and that the majority of the members of the board of water and light commissioners, since its organization, have been appointees of the present Democratic administration. The spectacle of the present Republican candidate for mayor and his organization seeking credit for the successful management of the gas and water plant, the records of the light and water support of every sincere advocate of the Democratic party.

"We are in favor of acquiring the West Duluth water plant at the lowest price obtainable by the most speedy proceeding, and agree to go about it with the same vigor and devotion as was exhibited in the acquisition of the old Duluth Gas and Water company's plant; and in case the city cannot acquire such plant at a reasonable price, we favor the duplication thereof by the city.

"We call the attention of the voters to the fact that it was under a Democratic administration that the project of an aerial bridge across the ship canal was first considered, and that our present candidate for mayor first obtained the consent of the United States chief of engineers, in charge of such matters, to construct such a bridge across the canal. The West End viaducts had been carried past the preliminary stages under the former Democratic administration, and the present Republican administration has done little more with respect to them than carry out the details of construction.

"No project of municipal ownership has been initiated by the present Republican administration, but opportunities for doing so have been evaded and postponed by it.

"THE POLICE DEPARTMENT.

"We submit to a public well acquainted with the facts, the records of the present Republican and last Democratic administrations of the police department, and ask support for the Democratic candidate on those records. We affirm that the present Republican administration has utterly failed to keep its pledges of reform in the administration of the police department, the issue upon which it came into power, and deserves the rebuke of the people.

Northern Pacific Absorption of Duluth Road May Be Attacked.

State Authorities Are Now Giving It Careful Thought.

Started By Failure To Open Twentieth Avenue Station.

The dispute over the opening of the Twentieth avenue station by the Northern Pacific may have more far-reaching results than was dreamed of when it began.

The state authorities may reopen the suit which was started to prevent the acquisition and absorption of the old St. Paul & Duluth road by the Northern Pacific, according to the Minneapolis Times.

While proceedings were dropped at the time on the assurance given by the Northern Pacific that the St. Paul & Duluth would forever be operated independently, it was done "without prejudice," to use a legal phrase, which means that future action was not made impossible.

The question is now being considered again as a result of the action of the Northern Pacific in closing the Twentieth avenue station at Duluth and refusing to reopen it, and the subsequent move of the state railroad commission instructing the attorney general to bring suit to compel the company to do as the people desire.

For some time it has been current talk that the state capital that the writer of the Duluth line was granted by the legislature, and that it was in connection with the proceedings which will soon be taken in the nature of a mandamus to compel the Northern Pacific to reopen the Twentieth avenue station.

Terminal tariffs for the jobbing interests of Duluth are most interested in, as under these rates are carried out by all classes of freight sent out from Duluth. The new rates are more generally by farmers shipping from local points. Speaking of the terminal tariffs a Northern Pacific official said that the rates from Duluth, St. Paul and Minneapolis to Fargo, Crookston and Grand Forks and points between, had been reduced an average of 15 per cent. For instance, the first-class rate to those points is reduced from 80 to 67 cents; second-class, from 68 cents to 57 cents; third-class, from 52 cents to 44 cents; fourth-class, from 40 cents to 34 cents; fifth-class, from 32 cents to 27 cents; class "A," from 22 cents to 19 cents; and other four classes of coarse freight in proportion.

He figured it out that the saving on a carload of eighteen tons of soap, for instance, between Duluth and the points named, would be $18 per car.

The savings on the quantity of sugar, molasses, canned goods, etc., would be about the same.

Hams and bacon also, which come under the above classes, can be shipped to Fargo and common points at a saving of 10 per cent under the new rates.

These shipments are on a full carload basis. Less than carload rates are also reduced in proportion.

The saving in shipments of farm machinery, wagons, etc., will average 15 per cent under the new rates.

Shippers of these classes, with an average load of 24,000 pounds, will save about $19 to the car, and dried fruit about $15.

The reduction in butter in tubs from the Red River country, where the carloads, will be about 11 cents per 100 pounds from the Grand Forks and Fargo region, or about 9 cents per 100 pounds from Wahpeton.

Grains, drugs, shoes, hats, caps, and a hundred and one other articles made up under the new rates, there is an unexpected change in classifications and carload maximums and minimums.

Shippers in Duluth will be interested in a comparison of new and old rates between these cities and other of the more important communities in Northern Minnesota and North Dakota, reached by the Northern Pacific, Great Northern and St. Louis & North Western.

From figures obtained at the Northern Pacific, it is ascertained that the new rates, for instance, to Breckinridge and Wahpeton, will be as follows:

Classes	1	2	3	4	5
First class, old	61	52	43	34	27
First class, new	56	48	39	30	24
Second class, old	48	40	32	24	19
Second class, new	45	37	29	22	17
Third class, old	38	32	25	19	15
Third class, new	35	29	23	17	14

THE NEW TARIFFS

I made up my mind soon after graduating from college that no one man was great enough to master the entire field of medicine and surgery. Many physicians have tried to do this, but they have met with results usually disappointing to themselves and often disastrous to their patients. For this reason I determined early in my professional career to confine my practice strictly to a single line of disease, and to originating and perfecting cures for them. I therefore treat only what I am absolutely certain that I can positively cure to stay cured.

Varicose, Stricture, Contagious Blood Poison, Nerve-Sexual Debility, Rupture, Kidney and Urinary Diseases and all reflex complications and associated diseases and weaknesses of men. To these maladies alone the best years of my life have been earnestly devoted, and on them all my faculties are concentrated. Our consultation and operating rooms are thoroughly equipped with every scientific apparatus, instrument and device essential to the most modern methods of practice, and our references, both professional and financial, are claiming the best citizens of this vicinity, who have been cured by us and made happy. I want every afflicted man to freely and fully investigate our treatment. My education, my experience, my conscience condemn all kinds of quackery. I treat each case separately and let me explain to you our process of treating it. You will find that our treatment is not only a cure, but a complete restoration of health and soundness to every part of the body affected by the disease.

Varicose.
Whatever may be the cause of varicose, its injurious effect is well known. It depresses the mind, weakens the body, and the nervous system, and is a source of complete loss of sexual power. It is a victim of this dire disease, come to our office and let us explain to you our process of treating it. You will find that our treatment is not only a cure, but a complete restoration of health and soundness to every part of the body affected by the disease.

Stricture.
It matters not how long you have suffered from stricture, nor how many different doctors have disappointed you. We will cure you just as certainly as you come to us for treatment. We will not do it by cutting or dilating. Our treatment is new, entirely original with us, and perfectly painless. It completely dissolves the stricture from the urinary passage. It stops every unnatural discharge, always all inflammation, reduces the prostate gland when enlarged, cleanses the bladder and kidneys, invigorates the sexual organs and restores health and soundness to every part of the body affected by the disease.

Nerve-Sexual Debility.
Men, many of you are now reaping the results of your former folly. Your manhood is failing and will soon be lost unless you do something for yourself. There is no time to lose. Impotency, like all sexual diseases, is never on the stand-

William Spencer, the Central avenue druggist, returned this morning from a pleasure trip of about ten days through Kansas, Nebraska, Arkansas and the Indian Territory. He says that the people of the territory are now enjoying what would be considered the spring weather at the head of the lakes, and it was hard for him, while down there, to realize that it was still midwinter.

The cold wave that visited the northern part of the country last month was also felt to some extent down there.

Mr. Spencer says that things are booming in and about Oklahoma City. City lots are selling for $25,000, or a rate of $100 per front foot. Farming lands in the region have advanced wonderfully in price to keep pace with the increased cost of agricultural products. INCREASE GAS PLANT

Water and Light Board Will Double Its Capacity.

New Gas Generator of Large Capabilities Is Ordered.

Change Made Necessary By Increased Consumption of Light.

The water and light board yesterday afternoon took steps to double the generating capacity of the gas plant.

While the full capacity will not be needed in the immediate future the gas business is growing to such an extent that the present apparatus is frequently taxed to the utmost.

The plan of the commissioners in adding the new generator is to have the plant so arranged that either one or both generators can be operated when emergencies demand it.

The present generator can manufacture 250,000 feet of gas every twenty-four hours and the new apparatus is guaranteed to manufacture 500,000 feet of gas every twenty-four hours.

The plan of the commissioners is to use the old one during the summer months. Then, the system being interchangeable, it will be possible to shift from one plant to the other when making repairs, and not inconvenience the consumers.

The contract for the new generator has been let to the Commercial Gas Apparatus company, of Toronto, subject to the approval of the council. The United Gas Improvement company, of Philadelphia, also bid for the work, agreeing to furnish a generator with 500,000 feet capacity for $10,000.

The Philadelphia plan was considerably disappointed and made sundry efforts to give its disappointed bidder, the United Gas Improvement company, a better deal.

As a matter of fact the commission only called for a generator of 500,000 feet capacity, that is all that the gas business requires. It had accepted a capacity of 500,000 feet, but the plan of the commissioners would have to remain in the hands of the water and light board.

The board accepted the bid of the Toronto company, as well as money, and the board accepted the bid of the Toronto company.

The new apparatus will be guaranteed to produce 500,000 feet of gas every twenty-four hours and the new apparatus is guaranteed to produce 500,000 feet of gas every twenty-four hours.

The contract for the new generator has been let to the Commercial Gas Apparatus company, of Toronto, subject to the approval of the council. The United Gas Improvement company, of Philadelphia, also bid for the work, agreeing to furnish a generator with 500,000 feet capacity for $10,000.

The Philadelphia plan was considerably disappointed and made sundry efforts to give its disappointed bidder, the United Gas Improvement company, a better deal.

As a matter of fact the commission only called for a generator of 500,000 feet capacity, that is all that the gas business requires. It had accepted a capacity of 500,000 feet, but the plan of the commissioners would have to remain in the hands of the water and light board.

The board accepted the bid of the Toronto company, as well as money, and the board accepted the bid of the Toronto company.

The new apparatus will be guaranteed to produce 500,000 feet of gas every twenty-four hours and the new apparatus is guaranteed to produce 500,000 feet of gas every twenty-four hours.

The plan of the commissioners is to use the old one during the summer months. Then, the system being interchangeable, it will be possible to shift from one plant to the other when making repairs, and not inconvenience the consumers.

SHOCKING.

Two Little Children Meet Horrid Death By Burning.

Coroner Boyer yesterday investigated a reported burning of two children near Grand Lake and found the reports correct.

The mother and two older brothers were out in the yard when they first noticed the smoke, and by the time they reached the interior of the house the bed room was burning.

The Nickelson family found a temporary home with neighbors. Practically everything they had was destroyed.

It is supposed that the two little children were playing with matches in bed.

Found No Relief In So-called Catarrh Remedies.

Mr. J. G. Steffe, Superior, Minn., writes:

"For four years I have been a continual sufferer from that dreadful disease, chronic catarrh. I tried all kinds of medicine, but none helped me. I was advised by a friend to write you about my case, which I did, and you kindly advised me to take a course of Peruna. I commenced at once and was surprised how it relieved me. I am happy to say I am a well man today. I have been able to do my work and am enjoying life. I am sure that Peruna is a great medicine for catarrh." J. G. STEFFE.

Other Patent Medicines No Good.

FABLES BY GEORGE ADE MR. DOOLEY TALKS

The Modern Fable of the Meteoric Mixer Who Did Not Last Such a Very Long Time.
(Copyright, 1920, by Robert Howard Russell.)

A large ponderous man with a slow delivery and very few gallant accomplishments was trying to date up a Nice Girl for a case of Mary when a Rival snatched her between them and put him out of business for a while.

This Rival was what they called a Quarter-Horse or Sprinter. He was stronger at the start than at any time thereafter. After having known him for 5 Minutes one would have said that he was a Delightful Chap. Those who had known him for 5 Weeks could tell him that he was the cheapest Snake who ever Blew. He was a Human Phonograph and carried about six Cylinders. When he had run through them, he would begin all over again and duplicate them. He was a Repeater. He had a few hot starts but he always exhausted his Repertoire the first time at that, and about the second or third Session the Listener would drop to the fact that he was being led around and around in a Circle.

A Young Lady likes a Compliment if it is impromptu and manufactured expressly for her, but it makes her peevish to learn that some 200 other Girls have had the same Speech slipped to them under the same circumstances.

When the Quarter-Horse broke into the Parlor for the Purpose of shell-roading the Quiet Man he made a big hit right at the Root. He did it all the talking and had the Girl hanging on his Words with one Arm and reaching for him with the other. In the meantime Old Silence-and-Fun sat back in the Corner, completely blanketed, but saying to himself: "Let him have all the Rope he wants and he'll tie himself in a Hard Knot."

On the third Evening the Sprinter was off and began to run with a Limp, so old Charles Slow pulled his Chair forward and took charge of the Girl once more.

MORAL: Don't shoot all your Fire-Works as a Curtain-Raiser.

The Modern Fable of the Manager and the Dead-Head Who Was Sour on the Whole Game.

There was a case-hardened old First-Nighter who claimed that all the real Actors and famous Characters had been dead for 15 or 20 Years. He longed for the Palm Days when he used to lead and Haw-Haw and be an Encore Fiend. Seemingly he overlooked the fact that when Comic Opera hit him hard and the Minstrels made him Laugh until it Hurt, he had been a gingersy Kid with a keen Interest in Life. At that time he didn't know that he had a Stomach. Now he could sit down any time and write a History of his Liver. He was a Victim of the Pepsin Habit. He also was well known in the Doctor's Waiting Room where People sit around and hate one another while reading last year's Magazines.

The old First-Nighter would go to the Play-House and sit there brooding over his Internal Organs. He wouldn't have laughed for 57. When the Actors looked down and saw that "Before Taking" Faces in the Back-Row, they would get rattled and forget their Cues.

After the Performance the Kicker would go out and tell the Manager what a punk Show it was, that the Comedian was about as Humorous as a Gine Sandwich and the Soubrette was a Varnish.

After failing, for Years, to put on a Show that pleased the First-Nighter, the Manager decided to make one Supreme Effort. He arranged a Bill that was a Worker. Melba did a Slack Rope Act and Mansfield gave a Pedestal Clap. The inevitable Double Sextet consisted of May Irwin, Madam Modjeska, Mary Manning, Lillian Russell, Amelia Hingham and Julia Marlowe in the Front Row, while D. H. Sothern, John Drew, Francis Wilson, Joseph Jefferson, Nat Goodwin and Kyrie Bellew did the "Tell Me, Pretty Maiden" Business. Mrs. Patrick Campbell broke Glass Walls with a 2 Rifle and the De Reszke Boys did several Popular Ballads with Dance Steps in between. The Show List looked bigger than the National Debt. At 7:22 the greatest bunch of Stars ever got together.

"There can be no Kiek coming on this Show," said the Manager, but even as he spoke he saw the First-Nighter coming out with a Look of Disgust on his Face, although six Champion Prize-Fighters had just walked out on the Stage to do a Dramatic Shift.

"How do you like the Show?" was the Reply. "The Plot is not Convincing and the Music is Reminiscent."

"I pass you up," said the Manager. And after that he went on to catering to the ordinary, low-browed Public.

MORAL: It is the Gift of Disagreement that makes First-Nighters.

The Modern Fable of the Boy With the Steadfast Ambition.

In a Small Place where the Local Freight stopped to take out the Ashes and pick up a Car of Produce, there was a Boy who had set his Heart on being a Railroad Man. He would go down to the 1st Depot and stand on the 3rd Platform and look at the Head Brakeman on No. 4, and say to himself: "Some Day I shall be like him if I improve my Opportunities and learn to make a Coupling on the Run without the use of a Stick."

He was down flipping the Trains every Day. In defiance of the Town Marshal, and he wore a flat-topped Hat and Braid in his Clothes. He chewed Conductor's Delight. All he needed to be a real Railroad was a large Silver Watch and a few Orders written on yellow Tissue Paper.

It was a Proud Day when they put him on an Extra Run for then he was privileged to speak of the Superintendent as the Old Man and wave his hand at the Dining-Room Girls along the Line. Just as he was becoming well acquainted with all the Agents and Operators and had acquired a large Vocabulary to be used in cursing the Engineer, he got what seems to be due every Brakeman. He was a little slow in withdrawing the Left Pin and the Bumpers caught him. When he came out of the Hospital, his Left Hand looked like a Pair of Scissors. Then he was a sure-enough Railroadman. He went back to the Road and the next time they landed him Right. He got mixed up in a head-on Collision and a Gravel Train piled up on top of him. By the time the Surgeons had pared away what wouldn't be any more use to him, he was trimmed down to about three-quarters Size. As soon as he got his Crutches he went back and got a Job on a Cross-tie where his Duties were to wave a Red Flag and criticize the Policy of the Road. One Day his Uncle, a well-to-do Citizen, came along and said to what was left of him: "If you had taken my Advice, you would be a successful Business Man with the usual number of Arms and Legs."

Then the Nephew replied as follows: "When the Choo-Choo Microbe begins to Work on a Man, he would rather be a crippled Brakeman than an athletic Bank President."

MORAL: He whose soul is in Railroad-ing never objects to being Marked Up a Little.

The Modern Fable of the Maid Who Connected With the Bee-Line Route to the Regions of the Upper Ten.

Belle, an Open Window in the Box Factory they told Day after Day a bright young Thing named Lizzie. She could look out and see the Gilded Youth going by, leading Dogs and trying to walk English Fashion and she would ask herself: "Oh, is it within the Range of Human Possibilities that some day I shall meet these remarkable Creatures?"

The Answer seemed to have a Negative Flavor, for up to date Lizzie had been unable to Flag any of our Best Young Men. They couldn't see a Box-Factory Girl, not even with a Monocle.

But one Morning Lizzie arose and found that her Name was not Lizzie at all, but Effie Lollypop, supposed to be the Daughter of a Prominent Physician of San Francisco. And the Box Factory saw her no more for she was in the Front Row of the Merry Villagers of one of these Troupes in which the Principals support the Chorus.

That evening all the Young Men who travel on their Names waited at the Stage Door to crave an Introduction, so that they might feed her and Present her with Automobiles. She married one whose Folks came over in the Mayflower and haven't done anything else except to hold on to their Real Estate. And now when she floats into a crowded Cafe, every one Rubbers, for she is a Celebrity.

MORAL: There are no Calcium Lights in the Box Factory.

The Modern Fable of the Agricultural Ingrate and the Revenge of the Common People.

A Farmer once ran for a County Office. He hitched up to his side-bar Bugle and drove around and Electrified until he had the Job elected. He lived in Town tried to pull down the Nominations but the Back Townships were all for the Farmer. The Voters said they calculated that Lem was in Sympathy with the Tolling Masses, for he wore a suit of Blue Jumps and a Hickory Shirt and a full set of Acollins and he certainly looked the Part.

Lem was carried to the County Seat on a Wave of Popular Euphuism. He moved into a House that was painted four or five Colors and he began to wear his Black Suit every Day with a Bowed Shirt and Sleeve Buttons. The Word traveled back to the Country that Lem was getting to be a dal-bithered Dude, and the next thing you knew, by Crim-lins, he'd be sporting a Necktie. Lem had his Chinchillas neatly trimmed by the Town Barber and came out in a Derby. He spread it on pretty thick and no mistake.

His old-time Neighbors would drive in town of a Saturday after a Week of Hard Work and they would see Lem sitting by a Window in the Court House playing Checkers with the Town Liar. When they realized that they, the Tax-Payers, were giving Lem a large Salary for sitting around in his Sunday Best and permitting that Lem had entered into that old and well-known Conspiracy to bunk the Granger and gold-bribe him and give him a Short End generally. So when Lem ran for re-election the outlying Vote fell on him like a Horse on a Buttery. Every hard-working Tiller of the Soil took a Crack at Lem because he lived in Town and put on Dog. When Lem found him self Marooned he did not want to go back to the Country and tackle Hard Work again. He stayed in Town and permitted his Wife to take Boarders. A good Farmer was spoiled in the making of a Disappointed Politician, but the Voters did not acknowledge that they were to Blame.

MORAL: Never wear the Hopst Toller away from his Blue Jumps.

The Modern Fable of the Lady Who Lived Down Her Part By Main Force.

Once there was a Large Family of Girls in an out-of-the-way Town. The Family was up against it about four-thirds of the Time and the Girls had to Shift for themselves. One of these Girls did a short line of Kitchen Work for a time in order to side-step the Poor-House. Later on she led to the altar an industrious Young Fellow who took her up to the City, where they did very well. She began to wear all kinds of Clothes and drop her R's and do the Heavy, but she could not get away from her Past. She remembered that she had juggled the Warble-Irons and rinsed the Dishes for 3 Sisters per Week and if Society ever heard about it, she to the Discard. So in order to allay Suspicion and prove that there was a Chasm between her and any Kitchen Mechanic, she used to roast the Help. One of her favorite Occupations was to walk up and down a Recent Arrival from Germany or Scandinavia.

With the Irish she had to be a little more Careful. But she worked the Lady Act so hard that she had to send to the Intelligence Office for a new batch of Menials every Day or two. She was so haughty and City-t that sometimes she almost jolled herself into the Belief that she never had been a Hired Girl at all. She fattened herself to be a little more jump on a Servant in a Manner that would have done Credit to any of the First Families. When her Husband re-quired her for calling down to the Presence of Callers, she reminded him that very often a Working Girl thinks she is as good as any one else, unless she is Squelched.

On Financial Needs In Matrimony

BY F. P. DUNNE.

(Copyright, 1920, Robert Howard Russell.)

"Can a man marry on twenty-five dollars?" asked Mr. Dooley.

"Mr. Hecaney," said Mr. Dooley, "there's a Judge on th' bench says twenty-five dollars is as much as a man needs to enter th' sacred bonds—twenty-five dollars beside th' nerve, an' he has to have that any-how. Th' pa-pers has took it up an' some is fr it an' some is again it. A few folks believes it can be done on less; others thinks it can't be done an' other thirty at th' outside. A larned lawyer says that a man who wud lure a young girl away fr'm her auncle lessons when it she asked him twenty-six dollars he'd be th' signal fr help, is nawthin' short iv a criminal. Nearly all th' ladin' aches in th' country has been inter-viewed an' they say that if married at all they cud not see their way clear fr less than a million iv money. They think th' Judge meant a divorce. Lookin' over th' argyments pro an' con, Hinnissy, I come to th' conclusion th' Judge is wrong an' times has changed."

"When I was a boy all a man needed was a little encouragement fr'm th' fam'ly an' account with a liveryman an' a small pail with th' parish priest an' there no was. 'Twas well if he had a job, too, but if he hadn't it wasn't a bar. A married man can always find wurruk to do. He's got to. But no man ever thought iv askin' him to skin open his bank book. They wasn't any such things. They wasn't any banks. He didn't have to pin a cashier's check to th' proposal an' put in a sealed bid. If th' girl in my time an' this part iv town had to wait fr an opulent business man with twenty-five or thirty dollars, many a thim wud be waitin' at this minit."

"We looked on Mark Hanna wud say, an' not as an investment. If th' young man was kind to th' dog, smoked segars that were not made by th' rubber thrust an' cud pass ivry second saloon without a pang, he was illegible fr to enter th' first families in th' neighborhood an' sometimes even th' last. THE SUMMER SHIRT WAIST

Will Be the Prettiest Yet Seen,
White Leading in Favor.

There Will Be Many Figured and Striped
Materials for General Wear—Pique
Is to Be Much Used.

New York, Jan. 15.—January and summer shirt waists have become synonymous terms. Just why it is difficult to say, but no sooner are we recovered from the holidays than dainty waists are to be considered and made up. While we are enduring the severest and most disagreeable of winter weather, our minds are given over to dainties, lawns, piques and similar materials of mid-summer wear. This season opens with the promise of much white in the dainty waists, but many figured and striped materials for general wear. All materials are soft finished, which will be good news to the victims of sensitive skins. Swiss muslin is so made that it no longer irritates the throat, and even pique by the way, is to be much used, and as nothing ever devised gives greater satisfaction for hard wear, that item will be met with rejoicing. Other materials are madras, dainty, chevrot, batiste, lawn and the familiar cotton stuffs, with linen, linen lawn, linen dimity, Swiss muslin, Paris muslin, Persian lawn and all the multitude of lace and fancy waives in the always becoming white. The features of the early models appear to be winter box plaits deeper from shoulders to waist. A novelty and one that bids fair to meet success is known as the "Gibson" and is comparatively plain, while at the same time it includes the new features. A hand some one shown is a pique, and, of course, unlined. The back may be plain even four box plaits at each front, with two or three at the back. A variation of the shoulder plaits is shown in madras and is exceedingly effective. There are two plaits at each shoulder, back and front. They are all more shallow than those of the Gibson waist, but extend to the waist line. At the fronts they slope slightly toward the center, but at the back are arranged to give the becoming V effect. The pointed stitchings are again shown at the front, but in this instance do not extend over the back. The box plait at the front is wider than those we are wearing, and both the collar and deep cuffs are pointed, while the sleeves are what may be known as scant bishop ones. The box plaited waists are suggestive of Norfolk styles, and would seem to give promise that that popular style is to be continued in the spring. The plaits take their width from the three stripes, when striped goods are used, and are not less than one and one-quarter inches wide in any case. The fronts are of necessity full at the belt, but the back plaits are laid over to form a V and so avoid all gathers. They are nearly all stitched flat about one-quarter of an inch from each edge. As a rule, the fronts are only slightly dropped and are allowed to blouse only upon slight figures, although this last is best determined by each individual for herself. The exaggerated long waist is inherently vulgar, and by every virtue of that fact was foredoomed to a brief existence. The present modification is far preferable from every point of view. Finer waists are so elaborate as almost or with a pointed yoke, but the fronts are laid in one deep plait, each that runs from the shoulder seam to the belt. These plaits are deep and stitched at the under folds to keep them in place, but through two thicknesses of the cloth only, and the box plaits are notably wider than those of last year. The sleeves are a comfortable width, in shirt waist style, but with the cuffs at least three inches wide that close with link buttons. The Gibson idea, or the Gibson thought, appears to have been much in the designers' minds. In addition to this shirt waist bearing the name is a fancy waist of quite a different sort. Inevitably, it will be seen in many materials and many combinations, but one of the first models is in white moire velours. In this instance the characteristic plaits are laid in both back and front and they extend beyond the arm's eye seams, adding breadth to the shoulders. They are laid in after the shoulder seams are closed, and so form continuous folds that are subject to position part of the way on both fronts and back. Between these plaits and the neck edges are groups of stitching, which give the effect of pointed straps over the shoulders. The sleeves are in bishop style, with deep cuffs, and the front closing is rendered exceedingly ornamental. Down each edge is a row of repousse gold buttons, and passing over these are loops of white silk cord. The neck is finished with a plain stock only, but both it and the cuffs are stitched to match the points at the shoulders. How far the waist resembles any of those Mr. Gibson has shown us worn by his always charming girls I do not know, but it, as well as the shirt waist, bears his name, and it is quite handsome enough to deserve such distinguished patronage.

Plains running from the shoulders are much seen and take many variations. A really novel waist has two at each side, and many others show three or women hemstitch each one, but more commonly they are simply run by hand in the fine materials, line stitched in the case of the less dainty waists. Round necks are apt to be trying. Only the youngest, most perfect throat can be certain of standing the test, yet many of these finer waists are so made or have slightly V shaped openings at the throat, the edge being finished with a soft lace frill, above which is heading run with ribbon. Often the necks are finished with soft stocks of the material, tucked and lace trimmed, but soft ribbons promise to have great vogue and to outnumber any stock of the material.

CREAM COLORED COATS

Almost regal elegance is the keynote of fashion this year. Even the long coat worn in the street is richly embroidered and decorated with bands of satin. The linings are marvels of luxury. This model is a pale cream cloth, embroidered in Persian colors and lined with a black and white moire. It is much shorter at the sides than in the front and back.

A charming new model in very thin fabrics includes elbow sleeves, but otherwise is a simple shirt waist. This is the usual box plait at the center with gathers, box plaits or somewhat generous tucks at each side, and a back that harmonizes, but the sleeves terminate just below the elbow, where they are finished with embroidered heading, through which terminates in full bows at the seams. With this are shown both unlined stocks of the fabric and those of the lovely soft mousseline ribbons. The plainer waists require these to be simply made, but the daintier ones are made still more elaborate and charming by what is known as a full set of both with small rosettes at the back collar with a single rosette, a larger rosette for the corsage, and a small bow for the hair. Favorite colors are pale or pastel blues, pinks, greens and yellows, but very charming they render the waist or corset. The masses of liberty ribbon are exquisitely soft, and lends itself to rosette making with singular success, while it is far from excessive in cost. With the plainer, heavier waists will be worn in addition to stocks of ribbon, and linen collars, plain stocks with fancy turnover or protection collars of colored linen, embroidered in white silk, or white embroidered with colors. These are cut in one piece, open at the back and slightly circular to fit the neck exactly. The linen can be found in pale blue, old rose and lavender, so that a really charming variety can be made. A few of the better shops offer them ready made, but as the needlework is all done by hand, the prices are prohibitive, except for the few. The labor involved is by no means excessive, nor does it involve any special technical skill. Edges should be closely scalloped with such additional designs above as one may choose. French knots are extremely fashionable, a triple row following the outline of the scallops is always chic. An upright group at each point is effective and when other suggestions might be made.

The mid-winter of our fashionable discontent is made glorious by the hats of January. These come in directly after the holidays and relieve the monotony of the dull schemes of dress, which at this time prevail.

It is against all rhyme or reason—against all chance belief—it is true that the appearance of a gown can be altered by a change in hats; and there would look like new women can accomplish the result by replacing the winter-worn millinery with something fresh.

With an extravagantly long and very large bow, whether of muslin or feathers, of fur or of silk, and with a new hat topping and finishing the bow, a woman can look as though freshly groomed. Take your gown of tobacco brown, a little passe, and make for yourself a wonderful bo of black taffeta, bound upon the edges with scarlet panne. Let it be in the form of a double ruching and let its ends depend to the very ground.

THE NEW BLOUSE EFFECT.

The very latest bodices show wide waistbands shaped into a rounded downward curve at the waistline in front instead of the sharp point so long worn. Above this the waist blouses front, back and sides. This is of light blue silk with clusters of fine tucks and lacings of velvet ribbon.

Now get for yourself a new hat. Let it be in black, your old walking hat will do, covered with black velvet. Perhaps you prefer to have it in brown, in which case use brown cloth, though black is very good. You can cover it yourself, trimly, yet without too great regularity.

At the front let there be a very long, very narrow buckle of silver, with Roman finish. This looks a little like oxidized ware, but is not quite so dark; it is more like unto a dull frost color. Let this buckle be caught through a mass of scarlet velvet to match the binding of your box, and from the middle of the buckle let long feathers start and curl backward over the top of the hat, hanging down at the back, in sweeping fashion. This sort of hat is very good with a half-worn suit, while the box completes the transformation.

It is a pity that the months of January and February should be so dull from a fashionable standpoint, or they are the months of all the year when smartness is most needed, and when its presence is most appreciated. In other words, one is Nature in all its loveliness, and one is assisted by Nature's living resources. But in winter, particularly during the dull days, there is nothing of this sort to help out, and the gown is either very interesting or intensely not so.

The first item of "jewelry" is the belt. This is of much more importance than deep as from the belt to the arm pits, and is made upon an elastic foundation. Its surface is studded with steel nail heads, or silver if you prefer, or gilt if you would be still more ornate. You get these belts mostly very glistening, and the more so the better. The buckles are very long and very narrow, and many of them are made of steel heads, or of set, or of gold beads, so that they are pliable and "give" to the waist a little. This pliability is something to be considered, when one is buying so wide an affair.

The wide belts that have buckles front and back are out of their class. Empire in name, they do not follow empire lines, for the true Josephine has only the front buckle. But the two buckled ones are becoming.

The jeweled belt is something that hangs from every smart belt. In jets or in steel it costs upward, considerably upward, of $1, and in silver it runs from $1 for a tiny one up to $20 for a handsome one of good dimensions. Those who dress regardless of cost hang one of these belt bases from the belt and trim it with a monogram upon the front. A bag of gold chain had a big turquoise set, and along the upper edge there were three big turquoise set in it.

The dangle, that feature of feminine dress, is now seen in new shapes. The locket, the watch, the writing tablet, the engagement book, the pencil and pad, the charm, the seal and even the cigarette holder all depend from the chain, which hangs around the neck.

FOR PRINCE.

Details For His Reception
Are Being Worked Out.

Washington, Jan. 17.—William Walker Downie, a member of the firm building the White House today and after discussing with President Roosevelt the details of the approaching launch went to the state department with Assistant Secretary (Mr.) Adams and Mr. Crowder to discuss the details of the launch which will occur at 10:30 a. m. Feb. 23.

It was decided that the launch shall occur at 10:30 a. m. Feb. 23. The president is expected to arrive at his personal representative at the ceremony, and have conferred with the details of the arrangements for the reception of the prince and for the launch.

Two plans are under consideration for the reception of the party to Shodor island, where the yacht is building. One is to have the president to meet the prince in New York where the party will board a United States government vessel and proceed down the bay to the island, nine miles distant. Another is to have the prince arrive by the Baltimore and Ohio railroad as far as New York bay, where it will be switched on to the long trestle and the party embarked on one of the shipbuilding firm's boats.

The shipyard is only three-quarters of a mile distant from this trestle. The prince and his party have been designated as first attendant upon the prince, and will be in command of the naval demonstration. He has arranged to have the escorting squadron under his command meet the prince at the German Lloyd steamer Kron Prince at Tompkinsville, at which point the prince will be transferred to the Hohenzollern and the naval procession will steam up the bay.

VERY OFTEN

Engineers Ran By Danger Signals Without Seeing Them.

New York, Jan. 17.—Joseph H. Franklin, manager of the New York Central terminals in this city, was recalled as a witness today in the inquest to determine the responsibility for the wreck in the company's tunnel last week, in which seventeen lives were lost. In reply to questions, Mr. Franklin said that under favorable conditions he thought a train running at the rate of twenty-eight miles an hour, the maximum speed permitted in the tunnel, could be stopped within 450 feet by the use of emergency brakes. He admitted that even old engineers had run past danger signals in broad daylight, even on a clear day, being unable to see the signals. Several reports made by engineers were then offered as evidence. One of these engineers had reported that he had been four minutes late; that he ran by the distance signal and green lights without seeing them; that the torpedo had failed to explode, and that he could not help running past the danger signals.

NOT A CERTAINTY

That the St. Louis Fair Will Be Delayed.

Washington, Jan. 17.—Ex-Governor Francis, president of the St. Louis exposition, and Adolphus Busch, chairman of the committee on foreign relations of the exposition, today admitted that the St. Louis exposition would be delayed. The Associated Press that they had made statements at the St. Louis House of Representatives regarding the date of opening the exposition, which could be interpreted as showing that a delay was contemplated. They are sorry that any misapprehension should have arisen on the subject. Mr. Busch gave out the following statement:

"If the foreign powers desire, in order to participate here in a dignified manner, they will exhibit a postponement to 1904, such a postponement will be taken into favorable consideration. We claim only that the St. Louis exposition shall be one of the grandest ever held; that it shall excel all others. In order to do that, we must have a world's exposition and world must participate and if it appears that more time is needed by the foreign governments, it is for the best to postpone the fair if necessary."

MRS. J. E. O'DONNELL,

President Oakland Woman's Riding
Club, Chicago, Sends an Unsolicited Letter to Mrs. Pinkham, and Wants It Published.

Sick Eight Years with Female Trouble and Finally Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

The already enviable record of Mrs. Pinkham's great medicine becomes more and more glorious every day, and how the glad tidings are spread among women from the Atlantic to the Pacific is told in such letters as the one from Mrs. O'Donnell here published.

The troubles to which women are subject because of their sex are many—every day a woman is liable to a new pain. Excessive worry may disturb the menstrual functions and unsettle the nerves. Over-excitement may set up inflammation of the ovaries and womb, but wherever or whatever the trouble is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is sure to find and cure it. Read Mrs. O'Donnell's letter and try to realize that such generous testimony is not to be had for money, or any monetary consideration; it is purely out of the goodness of her heart and gratitude for her own cure that by this act she is endeavoring to lead other women to health and happiness.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all women who are ill to write her for advice. Address Lynn, Mass., giving full particulars.

MRS. JENNIE E. O'DONNELL

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have never in my life given what you would call a testimonial before, but you have done so much for me that I feel called upon to give you this unsolicited acknowledgment of the wonderful curative value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For eight long years I had female trouble, falling of the womb and other complications. During that time I was more or less of an invalid and not much good for anything. Four years ago I noticed a book in the hall telling of the cures you could perform. I read it and became interested. I bought a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and was helped, and decided to use it for a year, but six months sufficed to cure me, and since that time I have simply had perfect health. Thanks, dear Mrs. Pinkham again, health such as I now enjoy is worth all that and more."—MRS. JENNIE O'DONNELL, 278 East 31st St., Chicago, Ill.

Surely such endorsement should dispel doubt from the minds of all hesitating women. After reading such a letter, if any woman is willing to remain sick, we can only say it is her own fault and she deserves to suffer; for the medicine that cures Mrs. O'Donnell and a hundred thousand others will surely cure her.

$5000 REWARD.—We have deposited with the National City Bank of Lynn, $5000, which will be paid to any person who can establish the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is not genuine, or was published before obtaining the writer's special permission. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

It is now definitely announced that Signora Eleonora Duse will come to this city for a highly profitable engagement this week. She has insisted, however, that she will not appear in any of her more than five performances each week. Ten performances are the limit. Her first performances will be at Philadelphia, Boston and Chicago, the remaining ten to be at New York. She has been carefully selected. It seems that in her original contract she had agreed to give ten performances, but she has insisted that she should reserve the right to render all negotiations for the remainder of the tour to some person of her own choice. She has accordingly appointed to test D'Annunzio's "Francesca da Rimini." She is thoroughly conversant with the play, and has advised that she will adhere to her contract. She will appear in the role of Francesca, the scenery and costumes of the first performance in Rome, and she has been told that she will be the "merveilleuse" of her other plays. It is not quite certain that Gustav Kuhn will accompany her, but it is quite probable.

A little story that was being softly told on the streets of New York, and has been taken up by "Ladies' Catter" in appearance in "The Saturday Evening Post," is that Mr. William Winter, the dramatist, has been told by a friend of his, who is of his own peculiar fashion. According to the story, which of course is only rumor, the soothing strains of William Furst's music were playing in the room of a hotel when the lights went up, an astonishing murmur ran around the orchestra that was heard by the audience, and the manager has it that Mr. Winter's slumber was broken by the music, and that he remained until the moment comes in the play for Mr. Carnegie to go down to the stage and to go up on the floor. There was no doubt that Mr. Winter was widely awake, and that he was not at all surprised when his friends were by no means surprised to find him in the audience, and that he was hauling from the distinguished critic the next morning.

Miss Elizabeth Threedy and Isabel Irving will appear with the great and popular train-raising comedy, which precedes the play, at the Garrick theater, 100 West Square. It is by Edmond Rostand, and

The latter is somewhat of a remarkable character. He is only 25 years old and an officer from the sheep pen of adventure. He belongs to an old

The conductor of the train, George McLaughlin, hurried to the car, and when he saw that murder had been committed pulled the bell rope to stop the train. Cocke and his friends ordered him to proceed. McLaughlin, who is a man of courage, refused to do as he was bid, and ordered the engine to back the train to Island.

The engine proceeded up the road and was stopped at Shelby by Cocke's order and the passengers left it, directing the engineer to go back to his train. This he did, and the train was again started for Memphis five hours later.

REAL WAR AT PANAMA

A Naval Battle In Progress
In the Harbor.

Governor Killed and Excitement Is Great.

Colon, Colombia, Jan. 20.—Via Galveston, Tex.—A naval battle, which began at 6 o'clock this morning, is in progress in the harbor of Panama.

The revolutionary fleet consists of the steamers Padilla, Darien and Galitan. They are trying to force a landing off Soana.

The government's ships are the Chilean line steamer Taro, the Pacific Steam Navigation company's steamer Chileuto and the Panama Canal company's steamer Boyaca. The first named steamer was seized by Gen. Alcan and the other two have been chartered by the Colombian government.

As this dispatch is sent three shots have just passed over the Chileuto, and she has answered with several shots. They fell close to the Padilla, which is seen to be retreating. The guns at Las Bovedas also are firing at the rebel ships.

The government forces are throwing up entrenchments.

The United States cruiser Philadelphia is close to the scene of the fighting.

Washington, Jan. 20.—The state department has received the following cablegram from Consul General Guder, dated Panama, today: "Fighting in bay. Governor killed. Excitement great."

The secretary of the navy has received the following cablegram from Capt. Mead, commander of the United States steamer Philadelphia, dated Panama, today:

"The insurgent steamer Padilla attacked the Lautaro yesterday morning at close quarters. Crew has deserted her. Is now on fire and sinking."

JONES' INTERPRETATION

Of Recent Orders For Indians to Cut Hair and Quit
Painting, Which Has Aroused a Tumult
Among the Redskins.

Washington, Jan. 20.—Commissioner of Indian Affairs Jones has issued a circular letter to Indian agents designed to correct a somewhat general misunderstanding of a letter he recently issued to agents directing the modification or discontinuance of a savage Indian custom. He says the letter was, mainly directed to agents cut off all privileges from return students who, after coming back from Carlisle Indian school and similar institutions, paint their faces, indulge in barbaric dances and feasts and wear long hair like the old Indians. He says that, judgment and perseverance should be used, and that agents should begin gradually and work steadily until the end is accomplished. It is not expected or intended that agents shall be so precipitate as to give the Indians any just cause for revolt. This is a reasonable request, and is merely an authoritative interpretation of the meaning of instructions given the agents on the subject, and in no sense a revocation.

Senate Committee Orders House Bill on Philippine Tariff Reported With Amendments—
Democrats Have a Substitute.

Washington, Jan. 20.—The senate committee on Philippines has agreed to report the house Philippines tariff bill with amendments. The report was ordered by a strict party vote. The bill was amended as heretofore agreed upon, being a reduction of 25 per cent on goods coming from the Philippines to the United States, with an additional reduction of export tax charged to the Philippines on products sent out of the islands to the United States. The Democrats presented a substitute, which will be reported to the senate. It provides that there shall be temporary free trade between the United States and the islands; that the United States shall continue to occupy and govern the islands until a stable government has been established, when the president shall direct the withdrawal of the islands, the United States to retain such military and naval stations as are deemed necessary. The islands are declared to be foreign territory by the minority bill.

A MURDERER ESCAPES

Birmingham, Ala., Jan. 20.—Early this morning, Frank Duncan, a notorious safe blower, under three other names, was escaped from the Jefferson county jail by sawing through numerous bars and cutting the lock off the outer gate of the prison yard. The escape was discovered at 6 o'clock and the officers in every city within a radius of 100 miles are being notified.

Duncan was a pal of Frank Miller, the crackman, who was hanged in Birmingham last year for killing Policeman G. W. Kirkley in a pitched battle between the police and a gang of safe blowers in this city in 1900. He was to have been hanged in December, but his case was pending in the supreme court.

George Bullard, charged with murdering a man in the railroad yards at Bessemer and placing his body across a pair of bumpers on a freight train, was another of those who escaped. The other prisoners who gained freedom were A. J. Dye, of Nashville, charged with grand larceny, and Jeff Van Horn, of Ensley, charged with highway robbery.

A reward of $500 has been offered for Duncan, while $100 each is offered for the others.

PATRICK IS ON TRIAL

New York, Jan. 20.—Albert T. Patrick was called to trial today, before Recorder Goff, on an indictment charging him with the murder of William Marsa Rice, who died in this city Sept. 23, 1900. Rice was a millionaire reclusive. He lived at an apartment house with his valet-secretary, Charles F. Jones. After his death Patrick took charge of the general arrangements and notified the relatives in distant parts of the country. Before the funeral several checks, signed with Mr. Rice's name, were presented at the private bank of S. W. Swenson & Son, and to the Fifth Avenue bank for certification. All were made payable to Patrick's order. One check on Swenson & Son had Patrick's first name spelled "Albert" instead of "Albert," and an investigation which followed showed that Rice was dead when the check was presented to the bank. Payment on this check was refused. Patrick then produced a will, signed William Marsa Rice, under which almost the entire estate of more than $5,000,000, was bequeathed to Patrick. An earlier will, dated Sept. 26, 1896, left the greater part of the estate to the Rice Institute, at Houston, Tex., and other educational establishments. The will was pending in the supreme court. It was what came to be known as the Patrick will, were indicted for forgery. Jones, the valet, also was arrested. He made a statement to the effect that Patrick killed Rice by administering chloroform, and Patrick was thereupon held for trial on the charge of murder.

A special panel of 200 talemen were summoned from which to select a jury. Assistant Attorney James W. Osborne and Francis P. Garvin were in charge of the prosecution, and Patrick's defense was in the hands of P. B. House and Robert M. Moore. When the case was called it was announced that the hearing of evidence would require at least a month of the court's time.

FIELD MARSHAL VON WALTERSEE AND HIS AMERICAN WIFE, WHO ARE TO VISIT AMERICA.

The announcement that Count von Waldersee, the German field marshal who commanded the allied troops in China, is soon to visit America recalls the fact that his countess is an American woman. She was Miss Mary Lee of Philadelphia and New York. No political or diplomatic significance attaches to the visit. It is for the purpose of permitting the Countess von Waldersee to visit her old home again. In 1874, when she was twenty-six, she was married to Prince Frederick of Sleswick-Holstein, who was then seventy. He left her a fortune of $400,000 at his death, six months after the marriage. The princess held aloof from society for several years, but in 1874 she married the dashing von Waldersee. Her influence at the German court is said to be very great.

Of Insurgents of Batangas Province
Has Been Adopted, Lenient Treatment Having Utterly Failed.

Washington, Jan. 20.—Having failed, after two years of strife, in subduing the insurrection in Batangas province, which lies just south of Manila, and having satisfied himself that lenient treatment of the insurgents is productive of no good results, Gen. J. Franklin Bell, the military commander in that province, has determined on the enforcement of the war in the most vigorous and determined form, involving reconcentration in a modified form, the application of martial law in all directions and the unflinching pursuit and punishment of the natives who act as spies and traitors to the United States. All this appears from a long report to the war department just published. The reconcentration order is dated at Batangas Dec. 8 last. In substance it provides for the establishment of a zone around the guerrilla headquarters, the natives in which are to be required to come under penalty of confiscation and destruction of their property. This is said to be necessary to prevent the collection of forced contributions of the people by the insurgents. The military officers are allowed to fix the price of necessities of life and it is promised that the people may return as inhabitants if peaceful conditions are established. This order is followed by a long circular by Gen. Bell, his commanders, commanding on existing conditions and giving them advice how to proceed. It begins with the statement that he shares in the general conviction that the insurrection continues because the greater part of the people, especially the wealthier ones, do not really want peace. He says it is regrettable that the natives must suffer with the guilty. He directs the application of general order No. 100, in force during the civil war in the United States, which practically regards an insurgent as a guerrilla, and outside the pale of civilized warfare and subject to the death penalty, wherever such insurgent does not engage continuously in the war and observe all the rules of war. However, it is provided that there shall be no executions without the approval of a superior officer. Commanding officers are specially enjoined to encourage young officers in hunting down the insurgents wherever found, at any rate, under the existing conditions, legitimate chances should be accepted, says Gen. Bell, as excessive caution will do the army incalculable harm. The best defense against the insurgents, he says, is to assume a vigorous offensive at once; to retire in the presence of the enemy is hazardous and discouraging. The people may return as inhabitants if peaceful conditions are established. This order is followed by a long circular by Gen. Bell, his commanders, commanding on existing conditions and giving officers, Gen. Bell says that Malvar and other insurgent leaders have dictated elections of all town officials in Batangas and Laguna, and these town councils meet and pass resolutions denouncing the insurrection, while secretly informing the insurgents that this is done under compulsion and supplying them with information. Therefore, Gen. Bell declares that neutrality should not be tolerated. Every inhabitant should be either an active friend or an enemy. He says that the words, must be made the test. Chief and most important among the class of disloyal persons he says, are the native priests. Gen. Bell declares it is practically certain that everyone in Batangas and Laguna provinces is a secret enemy of the government and in active sympathy with the insurgents. He orders that they be brought to trial whenever sufficient evidence is obtainable and adds that even in case of well-founded suspicion they should be arrested to stop their further activity. It is frequently impossible, he says, to obtain evidence against influential persons as long as they are at liberty, but the wall overlooking the corridor, were eating dinner in the dining room. The tables were being spread in the dining room for the prisoners' dinner, it being customary to serve them immediately upon the conclusion of the natives' dinner. A dinner gang was at work put-

NO HOPE STABBED IN THE BACK

Of Saving Life of Servant
Who Hanged Small Boy.

Cincinnati, Jan. 20.—Anie Lasse, the girl who asphyxiated heretofore after hanging the 4-year-old invalid son of Attorney Whittaker yesterday, is still unconscious at the hospital. The physicians have no hope of saving her life, but say that there is a remote chance that she may recover consciousness before death. Meantime no motive for the awful crime can be found, except insanity. One physician says she was insane from homesickness and from sympathy with the invalid boy, with whom she was left alone on Sunday. The sister of Anie, who is employed by a neighbor, is overcome by grief and is under the care of a physician. Mr. and Mrs. Whittaker are completely prostrated.

Chicago, Jan. 20.—The police are searching for a man who last night probably fatally stabbed Arthur Kennedy, in return for a blow which Kennedy had struck in defense of Mrs. Kennedy. At the hospital today it was stated that Kennedy's condition is critical.

Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy, accompanied by Miss Effie Scherer, were returning home from the theater last night, and came upon a quartet of well-dressed young men, one of whom stepped out and addressed Mrs. Kennedy. Mr. Kennedy knocked the offender down, and then went on his way with his wife to the elevated station. While he was paying the fares the unknown young man came up behind him, and plunged a knife in his back. Kennedy turned only to receive a second blow in the abdomen. The assailant fled, pursued by an angry crowd of onlookers, whose cries of "lynch him" brought the police to aid in the chase. But he escaped. Miss Scherer gave the police an accurate description of the man.

A DISPUTE OVER SMALLPOX

Salt Lake, Jan. 20.—Mayor William Glasmann, of Ogden, refused to accept the diagnosis of a case of suspected smallpox made by City Physician Condon, and after visiting the patient to satisfy himself, was ordered to quarantine by Condon. He placed the health officer under arrest, charging him with interfering with the mayor. The above is a result of a dispute of long standing between the health department and the city regarding Condon's smallpox diagnosis.

CRIMINALS AT LARGE

Daring Escape of Eleven Desperate Men.

Dig Through Brick Wall Into Air Chamber.

Tacoma, Jan. 20.—Eleven of the most desperate prisoners in the United States penitentiary, on McNeil's island, made their escape between 11 and 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, and up to a late hour last night were still at large. The character of the men implicated makes it doubtful whether they will be taken without loss of life. The men at large are: D. Snyder, sent up from Idaho for robbery; James Campbell, Nome, pickpocket; Thomas Morton, Nome, burglar; Frank Almsworth, Nome, larceny; Mike Williams, Spokane, counterfeiter; Harvey James, Nome, robbery; Henry Davis, Nome, Frank Morton, true name; Ed O'Neil, Spokane, counterfeiter; James Morley, Spokane, counterfeiter; J. P. Stewart, Idaho, counterfeiter; Bruce Kenwright, Nome, manslaughter; James Carroll, Alaska, murder.

A hole in the brick wall of cell No. 10, occupied by convict Snyder and Davis, reveals the method of escape. The wall is about a foot in thickness, and the floor of the cell is of equal thickness, covered with concrete. The tunnel was dug at the junction of the wall and the floor, sloping outward until it formed a connection with the air chamber, about two feet below and a foot outward from the corridor wall of the cell. Through this air chamber the prisoners crawled about forty feet to where it opened into the boiler room, the opening being covered by an iron grating. This obstacle was overcome by the means of saws and the prisoners had then only to walk out of the back door of the boiler room, across the yard and scale the board fence. A few yards from the prison grounds the dense growth of timber afforded them a safe retreat. The prisoners took advantage of the latitude allowed them during the dinner hour to consummate their plans, which had been carefully designed and boldly executed. The guards, with the exception of two, who were on duty on the wall overlooking the corridor, were eating dinner in the dining room. The tables were being spread in the dining room for the prisoners' dinner, it being customary to serve them immediately upon the conclusion of the natives' dinner. A dinner gang was at work putting the tables in order and the other convicts had the privilege of the corridor. One by one the men slipped into cell No. 10 and crawled through the hole unnoticed. When the guards came out and lined up the prisoners after dinner, eleven were missing. A brief search resulted in finding the hole in the wall, and guards at once ran to the boiler room where the steel door swung on its hinges, showing that the men already had flown.

Warden Palmer does not think it possible the prisoners secured more than fifteen or twenty minutes start of him. He at once sent a number of guards in pursuit, and made a tour of the island, notifying the farmers of the escape, and instructing them to guard their boats carefully, so that no opportunity would be allowed for escape. Marshal life and Warden Palmer are exerting all their efforts to establish a perfect cordon around the boats believing that if they can prevent the prisoners leaving the island under cover of darkness they will be able to retake them today.

With two launches, three row boats and thirty men guarding the shore line, it is believed by the officers that if the men were still on the island at 9 o'clock last night, their escape will be blocked.

Warden Palmer has not had time to make a thorough investigation, and expresses wonder how the work could have been done without detection. "We inspect the cells regularly once a week," said the warden. "The last inspection was made Saturday and I ordered the guards who made the inspection to make a careful investigation. They reported everything all right. The work must have occupied several days, and how they could have concealed the brick and dirt which they took from the wall until they had reached the air chamber is more than I can understand."

Palmer believes the prisoners used a spoon and wood wedges to burrow through the wall. The plan which is most feared will be pursued by the convicts will be to raid some of the numerous farmhouses, secure guns, clothing and a boat, and then row to the mainland. Among the escaped prisoners are many desperate characters, who would not hesitate at murder to accomplish their purpose.

NATIVES TAKE UP ARMS

Inhabitants of Formosa Are In Active Insurrection Against the Japanese Authorities and Much Fighting Results.

Tacoma, Jan. 20.—Advices by the steamer Tacoma state that the insurrection movement in Formosa is much more serious than at first supposed. Twenty-five hundred natives in Southern Formosa have taken up arms against the Japanese authorities. The prevailing conditions are similar to those in the Philippines, making it almost impossible for the Japanese troops to drag the insurgents out of the jungle where the latter are able to live. In the last battle the Japanese lost twenty-eight men and twenty wounded. Twelve insurgent leaders and 150 of their followers were killed and captured. Neither party gained any advantage by this battle. The insurgents are capable of such a vigorous campaign that the Japanese have sent seventeen companies of militia against the Panic Stricken Mourners Escape

Through the Windows.

Hartford City, Ind., Jan. 20.—At the United Brethren church near Humboldt, white Rev. J. M. Hobbs was preaching a funeral sermon, flames burst through the floor beneath the pulpit and the church was almost immediately filled with smoke. In the excitement of the panic stricken mourners and friends of the deceased they escaped through windows and the corpse was momentarily forgotten, but was finally rescued from the flames. The men formed a bucket brigade and the flames were extinguished. The funeral service was postponed to the cemetery, where the preacher finished the sermon at the grave. The fire was caused by an overheated stove in the basement.

MOURNING NEARLY OVER

English Court Will Soon Resume Its Brighter Aspect as Year of Sorrow For the Queen Is Nearly Ended.

New York, Jan. 20.—In a course of a few days the year's mourning of the royal family for the late queen will be over and the court will resume its brighter aspect, cables the Tribune's London reporter. West End is full of preparations for the new order of things, and it is clear from many indications that their majesties desire the London season to be as cheerful as the conditions will permit. Many families are in mourning because of losses in South Africa, and for various reasons, it is presumed that Queen Alexandra, Princess Christian and Princess Henry of Battenberg will continue their predilection for neutral tones in clothing.

went, but the aspect of society will be gay than for many a year, and intimations already are made to show the king intends to make frequent appearances in public places of amusement during the coming months. The Victoria memorial fund is still well below $200,000, and is increasing very slowly towards the required $500,000. The reason for this state of affairs is supposed to be that people living out of London have a strong objection to material in the metropolis. In all probabilities the precedent which was set in the case of the memorial to the prince consort will be followed, and parliament will be asked to vote the funds.

Northern Pacific Sticks to Its Refusal to Obey Order.

Today is the last one under the notice given by the state railroad and warehouse commission for the Northern Pacific road to reopen the Twentieth avenue west depot and run its passenger trains past that station. Neither order has been complied with, and it is said that no instructions have been received at the division headquarters here to comply with the terms of the order. This inaction is in line with the telegraphed advice that the Northern Pacific intends to test the authority of the commission in the matter in controversy.

A TRESPASS SUIT.

Further Steps Are Taken By John McAlpine.

The reply of the plaintiff to the answer of the defendant, and a summons and new complaint, in the timber trespass case of John McAlpine against Joseph Zimmerman and Thomas Ives, of Guttenberg, Iowa, have been filed with the clerk of the United States district court.

In his reply the defendant admits that an action was begun in the district court of Itasca county, but alleges that it was brought to recover from debts for trespass committed on the lands of the plaintiff, and that an amended complaint seeks recovery on the conversion of the logs.

The new complaint states that in March, 1899, the plaintiff had possession of 224,000 feet of white and Norway pine logs in 31 and 32-60-22, valued at $230, and that between March and August, 1899, the defendants became unlawfully possessed of the logs and converted them to their use.

The complaint alleges that all other rights, demands and claims to the logs are vested in the plaintiff. J. L. Washburn and W. D. Bailey are representing the plaintiff.

HE HAS A THEORY.

D. C. Thompson Discusses Lake Superior Weather.

D. C. Thompson, who has lived many winters in the upper peninsula and thereabouts, as well as at Duluth has a theory regarding the lake winds. He says that the prevailing winds in the winter are from the south and southwest, and that the winds from the north and northwest are comparatively light. He says that the winds from the south and southwest are the result of the fact that the lake is open to the south and southwest, and that the winds from the north and northwest are the result of the fact that the lake is open to the north and northwest.

A LAKESIDE CURIOSITY.

Dog Frozen Stiff, Erect and Pointing.

Passengers on Lakeside cars are speculating about the history of a big white and black hunting dog, whose mortal remains, erect and posed as if pointing after a bird, stand about three feet up Fortieth avenue. The dog appears at first glance to be alive, so alert and natural is the posture. The body has been in this position for several weeks, and theories are all indulged in as to how it got there.

Many believe that the dog was caught in the cold snap last month and frozen to death in the attitude in which it is body is now found. This gave rise to further controversy as to whether the dog could possibly have frozen to death in an erect and tame position. The debaters have finally concluded that the exhaustion that would naturally set in before death would cause the deceased canine to lie down, and that freezing to death in an erect, unrelaxed position would be a scientific impossibility.

It soon became a matter of scientific discussion but as a fact, that the dog had been poisoned, and that some boys, finding the neglected corpse, dragged it up the avenue and made a very good job of amateur taxidermy. The subject has excited so much controversy, however, that it may be handed down as a legend of Lakeside.

EXPERIMENT.

Test to Be Made With Ore From Arcturus Mine.

A carload of iron ore from the Arcturus mine, the Itasca county property on which exploratory operations have been carried on intermittently for a number of years past, has been shipped to Duluth. There an experiment will be made with blasting it in a new form of furnace which is in use there. It is believed that this device will be able to remove the foreign substances that have made the Arcturus ore unmarketable. It is claimed that what work has been done on the property has warranted the belief that there are 17,000,000 tons of ore in sight. The Arcturus is located sixteen miles from Grand Rapids.

The ore on the Arcturus property is said to run about 65 per cent in ore. It is the very large percentage of silica that is washed out of it. Its constitution, in a general way, is said to be very similar to that of Southern iron ores, with the important exception, however, that it runs about 10 per cent higher in iron.

It is believed that the difficulty of eradicating the sand will be similar to that experienced with Southern ore. The Kentucky process is said to have been invented with the special idea of washing out the sand before the ore is put in the furnace. If it works as well with the sample as it does with the Southern ores, iron men are inclined to believe that the Arcturus people have a good prospect.

Lumberman's Comment on Statistics Government Gets.

A local lumber shipper whose standing in the trade makes any view he may express of decided significance, pointed out today what seemed to him the futility of government harbor statistics as compiled under existing laws. He has criticized to make of Capt. Galliard's or Collector Wilcote's methods in employing the measures provided for them by law.

"I am satisfied that these officials and their assistants compile their statistics as conscientiously and effectively," said he, "as can be done under existing provisions. But these provisions have been proved inadequate and are really misleading. The figures are not even approximately correct. I have found by computation from manufacturers' books that the actual average value per thousand feet of lumber shipped from here was $14.65. The government engineer's figures are based on an average value of $15 per thousand. I have no doubt that the basing average would be given by manufacturers generally, speaking offhand, as $15 per thousand, but my figures are what all the sales of all the manufacturers did average. The result of this discrepancy is to make the statistics values. When improved methods of compilation are adopted these exaggerated figures will make the more accurate data of future years seem smaller than they really are. I believe steps should be taken at once for the preparation of more correct figures of our commerce."

TO REVIVE CHAMBER

Revival of the Chamber of Commerce Is Needed.

Mayor Hugo Thinks It Could Be Made of Use.

He Would Model It After Minneapolis Commercial Club.

The reorganization of the chamber of commerce is being suggested by prominent citizens.

Mayor Hugo says that the old organization should be brought to life and be so rearranged as to work on the same plan as the Commercial club of Minneapolis.

This club is composed of the leading business and professional men of the city, and has apartments similar to the Kitchi Gammi club in this city.

A few years ago this was suggested at a meeting of the local chamber of commerce, but the idea was abandoned for the want of finances. Conditions have improved to such an extent since then that the men back of the proposed reorganization say the scheme could be financed without the slightest difficulty.

Mayor Hugo says that it is incumbent on Duluth to have something of this kind to look after business that is practically offering itself to Duluth, but which is not encouraged to locate here. He says that all the citizens should get together and work for the interests of Duluth, and believe the revival of the chamber of commerce is the first and most important step in this direction.

Menominee People Believe Freeman Will Never Come Back.

Menominee—There has been much talk the last few days regarding the alleged flight of Archie Freeman, who is out on $5000 bonds awaiting trial at the February term of circuit court on the double charge of embezzlement and forgery while acting as manager for Raber & Watson, the Chicago cedar firm, in this city.

Freeman left the city late in December, and his friends here were going to look over and buy some land, and borrowed money here and in Iron Mountain which it is estimated amounts to about $1500. Sheriff Stiles has returned from Chicago and says he got direct trace of Freeman there. He says he found out definitely that Freeman bought a ticket to the City of Mexico and left Chicago on New Year's night. Some say he will come back to appear in court, but most people think otherwise. On the bond for the charge of embezzlement are the names of Thomas Kelley, G. N. Greer and Robert Beatty, each of whom is a resident of Menominee.

On the bond for the charge of forgery are the names of Charles McGinnley, A. Stephenson, E. A. Duvall, Sol Frazier, Sol Frost, John Martenson, Eugene Houde and Thomas Kelley, each of whom is a resident of Menominee.

The Political Campaign Is Opened By Both Parties.

Commercial Club Will See About Beautifying West Duluth.

Things That Are Going On In City's Western End.

With political meetings by both the Republican and Democratic parties in West Duluth Saturday evening, the local municipal campaign began to show its first signs of enthusiasm in this part of the city. As yet it is remarked, however, that the campaign is being conducted along much quieter lines than any previous municipal election. There are promises, of course, that the coming week will demonstrate that there are many who feel in the same state of mind as the man from Missouri.

The Democrats have their headquarters well established at 216 Central avenue and have a new sign over the front. The Republican headquarters are located in Stewart's hall.

At the Democratic club meeting Saturday evening, Henry Truelsen, the Democratic nominee for mayor, was the principal speaker of the evening.

There was no set speaking at the Republican club meeting, but speeches were made during the evening by Alderman Barnes and Hon. Houghton, Lake Linden, Laurium, Osceola and this city have teams, and the success of the plan is assured.

One of the questions that is being agitated to a large extent and one in which it is believed the West Duluth Commercial club will take an active interest, is the matter of beautifying this part of the city by means of trees and shrubbery. It has been noted frequently by intending home-sitters that West Duluth is about as devoid of shade and ornamental trees as any other part of the city, and that the property owners and residents here should be awakened to the responsibility that rests on them in this matter.

Near to the sewage works, that of shade and ornamental trees is of much importance to this portion of the city.

FOOTBALL.

Michigan and Wisconsin Agree to Play Next Season.

Madison, Wis., Jan. 20.—(Special to The Herald.)—Michigan and Wisconsin have finally come together on the matter of schedules so that they will hereafter meet on the football gridiron in the fall after an intermission of three years. Graduate Manager Kilpatrick, who is arranging the football games for next season, has a column account of a baseball game, the terms of the agreement were gone over, and approved by the athletic council at Madison, Wis., last night.

Another clause of the agreement settles the triangular contest between these two universities and Chicago as to the Thanksgiving game. This year Wisconsin will play Chicago at Chicago on Thanksgiving day, and in 1903 Michigan will have that date for her game, alternating thereafter between Michigan and Wisconsin. By the terms of the compact both Michigan and Wisconsin agree to play any other team than Chicago at Chicago on Thanksgiving day, and the Michigan-Wisconsin game being played there. The game with Minnesota will be played in Minneapolis this year on Nov. 8. Wisconsin will have one of the heaviest schedules next year that has been before her for some time, and will find necessary by the council to postpone a date on that account. Northwestern is placed on the schedule again, playing at Madison Nov. 8.

LUMBER MARKET

Lumber Buyers Are Here Dickering In Local Market.

Jacob Mortenson Says
Duluth Is Chief In Lumber World.

Is Strong Disinclination to Make Advance Sales of Lumber.

There are quite a number of lumber buyers in the city looking over stocks and figuring on lumber stocks to be cut the coming season. The local situation is practically unchanged. Prices are firm and the manufacturers are not in a hurry to sell. In fact, there is a strong disinclination to make any advanced sales of stock.

Among the large sales of the past week or ten days, D. C. Thompson & Co. have sold about 500,000 feet of various grades for Eastern shipment. Several other sales of less than 1,000,000 feet were made during the latter part of the week, and some other large sales are pending. It is claimed that in some cases the sales amount to nothing more than options on the cut of certain mills.

Jacob Mortenson, the veteran Chicago lumberman, who has large interests in the Northwestern pine sections, arrived in the city today for a short business visit. Mr. Mortenson says that everything considered the present situation is most favorable to the lumber manufacturers, and there never was a season before when they could look forward with so much confidence to a prosperous year's business as they can at present. Mr. Mortenson is from Chicago, and the Northwestern pine district shows the importance of the Duluth lumber market in the eyes of the Eastern lumberman, compared to what it was a few years ago. Said Mr. Mortenson:

"All along the lakes Duluth is being recognized as the lumber market for the East. The time when pine was not so plentiful in Michigan, and Duluth was considered too far out of the lumber world to cut much figure, but with the rapid disappearance of pine in Michigan and other points east of Minnesota, the fact has been brought home that the lumber prices from now on until conditions again change, will be made here in Duluth."

Mr. Mortenson is interested in a large extent in pine lumber manufacture at Iron River, Wis. He says that the cut in the Iron River district this season will be about the same as last.

Can shipments of lumber continue lively and some deliveries are being ordered early in the hope to get the lumber when it will be needed. The shortage is still felt to some extent, but not so much at the head of the lakes as at the Twin Cities. There has not been a break in the volume of railroad logging since the hauling season began. Log revolvers by cars continue heavy and are on the increase. The Bayfield & Western company is hauling more logs from Wisconsin woods to the head of the lakes than in any previous season. The management has within the last few days closed another small contract that will add practically one car per day to the railroads that the road is hauling here and to West Superior.

The first car of lumber shipped in Port Arthur to be sent to the Western prairie country in competition with the Rut Portage mills, was shipped recently to Winnipeg over the new road of the Canadian Northern. A great deal was made of the car of lumber, and it was gaily decorated with flags and festoons for its trip Westward. At various points along the new line mills have begun to start up, and the lumber traffic over the new road is expected to be large.

C. A. Gilman, of St. Cloud, arrived at the St. Louis yesterday. Governor Gilman spent Sunday with Lon Merritt, and it was thought by some that he was interested in the fee to section 20. The governor disclaimed this morning, however, that he had been made a millionaire by the supreme court's decision.

"I thought at one time that I had a remote interest in that famous property," said he, "but I don't suppose that I am more remote than ever. However, it is never such that I am not glad to see Lon Merritt with one in it."

"Politics? Well, I don't suppose that anybody ever could name a time when St. Cloud was not talking politics. Of course, they have already begun to discuss the congressional matter, but I don't believe they have evaded any."

IMMENSE TRAFFIC REPORTED TO SENATE

Senator Nelson Argues For Department of Commercial Bill.

Washington, Jan. 20.—Soon after the senate convened today, Mr. Lodge (Mass.), chairman of the committee on Philippines, reported the house bill temporarily to provide revenues for the Philippines. He gave notice that at 2 o'clock tomorrow he would call up the bill and make a brief statement concerning the measure.

"This is a bill," said Mr. Lodge, "which, in the judgment of the majority of the committee, requires immediate attention. It is my desire to bring it before the senate from day to day until action upon it shall have been taken. I have no desire to press its consideration unduly, as I know of no measure upon the part of its opponents to obstruct unduly its consideration or passage. I am, however, a proper wish to debate the subject thoroughly."

He hoped that those who were opposed to the measure would be prepared to proceed promptly with its consideration, so that the time of the senate would not be wasted. Some of the committee on Philippines, offered a substitute for the measure proposed by Mr. Lodge. He gave notice that on the conclusion of the remarks of Mr. Lodge tomorrow he would submit some statements in support of the substitute measure.

A house bill conferring upon Mrs. Ida S. McKinley, widow of the late President McKinley, the mail franking privilege, was called up by Mr. Mason, chairman of the committee on post offices and post roads, and passed.

Mr. Cullom (Ill.) introduced a bill "to prevent the transportation of deleterious food and drinks and to provide for the appointment of a dairy and food commissioner." He said the measure had been sent to him by very good men, but that he knew very little of the matter. He assumed, however, that it was a proper bill, and he introduced it in order that it might be considered by a committee.

A resolution offered by Mr. Mitchell (Oregon) providing for the appointment of a messenger for the committee on coast defense, brought Mr. Platt (Conn.) to his feet with a protest against the increase of the clerical and official force of the senate. He said there had been many similar resolutions introduced during the present session. It was a fact, he said, that the clerical force of the senate now costs more than the aggregate salaries and mileage expenses of senators. Without reference to this particular resolution, Mr. Platt felt that such propositions ought to be scrutinized carefully.

The resolution was referred to the committee on contingent expenses.

At the conclusion of routine business, Mr. Mason made a statement, personal to himself, he explained, concerning the publication in certain newspapers of a criticism of him because it was stated that he was opposing rural free delivery of mail. "For years," he said, "I have been endeavoring to better the rural free delivery service, and even now, in favor of a largely increased appropriation for that service." He explained that the amount of $40,000,000, above offered to remain in force up to March 1, 1903.

"The new Panama Canal company declares that it is ready to accept the totality, without exception, of its property and rights on the isthmus, the amount of $40,000,000, above offered to remain in force up to March 1, 1903."

Mr. Nelson then called up the bill, in answer to similar statements, and answered various criticisms that have been made of the measure.

In concluding his argument for the department of commerce bill, Mr. Nelson said the United States needed it to put itself on a parity with other nations of the world and the bill was needed to put our commercial and industrial development under government control.

IN THE HOUSE.
Washington, Jan. 20.—The house immediately after its meeting today went into committee of the whole and entered on the consideration of the urgent deficiency appropriation bill, which was reported to the house on Saturday.

Mr. Cannon, who was in charge of the measure, explained that the bill provided for the government service for the current fiscal year where existing appropriations were not sufficient. The bill carried $16,704,230. He answered many inquiries about various items in the bill.

Mr. Cannon said the emergency appropriation of $40,000 for the state department was for the entertainment of Prince Henry of Prussia. He said it was eminent for a great nation to provide proper entertainment for the representative of a great people beyond the seas, which "had given us so much of our bone and brain and brawn" (General applause).

ARE NOT AGREED

Aldermen Not Settled as to Widening of Piedmont Avenue.

Question Is Whether It Shall Be Widened Twenty-Eight Feet.

Some Favor a Compromise Measure For Fifteen Feet.

The council this evening may have another interesting discussion on whether or not the point of rocks shall be cut away 28 feet for the purpose of widening Piedmont avenue.

It was this proposition that caused the early adjournment of last week's meeting and up to a late hour today the aldermen were as far from reaching an agreement as they were then.

The board of public works let the contract for this widening of Piedmont avenue about a month ago. It widened 28 feet the cost will be $100,000.

A number of the aldermen are in favor of a compromise measure widening the avenue only 15 feet and reducing the cost of the improvement to about $50,000.

In the original contract now awaiting the council's approval, the contractors, Zimmermann & Plante, are to give the city 20 cords of rock to be used in filling in ravine at the corner of Third and Second streets where the open tunnel is proposed.

The West End aldermen and business men are urging the council to allow the contract for widening Piedmont avenue, claiming that in the first place the much-needed point of rocks is badly seamed and dangerous.

Then they expect that when the Garfield avenue viaduct is thrown open to traffic, the street cars will come to a halt at Garfield avenue and West Superior will so crowd the narrow Piedmont avenue as to greatly increase the possibility of accident.

West Duluth businessmen and residents generally say the cutting away of the point of rocks is not nearly so urgent as the building of an open tunnel on Superior street, extending to the corner of Second and Superior streets and in view of the fact that there is not enough money in the permanent improvement fund to carry through both improvements, the West Duluthers think the tunnel project should be given first consideration.

MAKE VISITS.

The Modern Woodmen Camps Fraternize Regularly Each Month.

The Woodmen camps at the head of the lakes have instituted a series of visits to each other that are proving very interesting features in fraternal order doings here and in West Superior. The first of the visits was made on the last Thursday evening in December and the next visit will be made on the last Thursday evening in January.

There are five Woodmen camps at the head of the lakes, three in this city and two in West Superior. It is the custom of the visits to each of the camps to be visited by the other four. Whenever one of these visits occurs each Woodmen lodge turns out in large numbers, with its working team and its band, and the occasion is made a gala one. As a social feature the visits are proving very popular.

The first visit was made last month to Imperial camp in Duluth, and there was a large representation present from Duluth camp, of the West End, Old Hickory camp, of West Duluth, and Whalback and Royal camps, of West Superior.

On the last Thursday evening in this month all of the Duluth camps will go over to West Superior and visit the camp of that city, will visit Whalback camp.

Arrangements are already being made for the visit, and it is expected that the affair will be a large one. Nearly every camp will have special cars leaving from points convenient to the respective lodge halls. With the Woodmen will be the bands to entertain the visitors on the way across the bay and after they get to West Superior. The degree team will appear in full uniform and exemplify the work of the organization.

There are about 2000 Woodmen at the head of the lakes and the organization is said to be showing a steady increase in membership. The largest camp at the head of the lakes, in fact the largest camp of Woodmen in this state, is Duluth camp, of the West End. The membership of Duluth camp is 1088.

The members are very enthusiastic in affairs pertaining to their camp, and are feeling jubilant over the fact that when the great camp settles up the affairs of the past year with the state lodges, Duluth camp will secure the coveted state banner for being the banner camp of the state. The state banner has been held some time by one of the St. Paul camps that has a total membership of 1011, just 77 behind that of the Duluth organization. Duluth camp has enjoyed a large increase in membership, due to the hustling qualities of its members, during the past year. When the banner arrives the camp will have a big banquet, to which all the other Woodmen camps at the head of the lakes will be invited to participate.

DR. MINTON.

Distinguished Presbyterian Clergyman Preaches In Duluth.

Dr. Henry C. Minton, moderator of the general assembly of the Presbyterian church, and who fills one of the chairs of the San Francisco theological seminary, preached at the First Presbyterian church in Duluth yesterday both morning and evening. He was once pastor in this city and was given a warm welcome by members of the congregation.

To night a reception will be given at the church for Dr. Minton.

The subject of Dr. Minton's morning sermon was "The Twentieth Century Forward Movement." It was an eloquent discourse. In the beginning he took issue with Mr. Stead's statement that the world is growing worse. He claimed that on the contrary the Christianizing influences are steadily increasing. In the last half of the century recently closed there was an enormous increase, to say nothing of the first half. He instanced the work of the Young Men's Christian association, the Endeavor societies and other organizations that are striving for spiritual improvement.

Dr. Minton also devoted some time to presenting the record of the Presbyterian church. It now has 1,025,000 members representing from 5,000,000 to 8,000,000 of regular church goers. The church government is republican in form rather than democratic. The Athenian republic was a democracy, the people acting directly. The church speaks through its representatives.

The general prosperity of all people was referred to by Dr. Minton and as an instance he cited a Philadelphia man who told him he was making so much money now that he was actually becoming afraid. He had always made it a practice to give a certain percentage of his income in benefactions, but he is making so much now that he hardly knows where to bestow it. Dr. Minton presented the obligation that rests upon each individual to help along anything that will advance the cause of Christianity. The money that a man hangs on to will bluster his fingers and burn his heart.

In speaking of the needs of the new century he referred to the necessity of support for Christian colleges. The people are going university mad, he said. The broadening of the mind and the heart comes more from the small college than the large university. It is the personal contact with good men that trains the mind and heart. The university puts a point on a man. It specializes and is for utility, while the college broadens minds and morals. Dr. Minton said he could see a distinct reaction against the large university.

Another need which he presented is that of missions. We are only playing with missions now, he said. Progress has been made, however. At the beginning of the century sixty-six languages; now the entire book is printed in 422 different languages.

He also presented to the members of the Duluth church the responsibility that rests upon them of getting their church out of debt. Once cleared of it, the field of the church will be greatly widened and it would be better able to meet the needs of the community.

Last evening Dr. Minton spoke on "Christ, the Same Yesterday, Today and Forever."

LAUNCHED.

Big Steamer G. J. Grammer Slides Into the Water.

The steel steamer G. J. Grammer, that has been building since last fall at the Superior shipyards for the Seither Transit company, of Cleveland, was successfully launched Saturday afternoon.

The Grammer was christened by Mrs. L. Williams, wife of Superintendent Williams of the shipyards. There was very little ice in the slip at the time of the launching, as steam pipes have been keeping the ice from forming for several days past and have warmed the water of the slip sufficiently to melt much of the ice that had previously formed there.

One of the workmen had a narrow escape from being caught under the big boat as she slid into the water.

The Grammer is a steel vessel of the most improved type. She is 366 feet long, 48 feet beam and 28 feet deep. The boat will not be completed for some weeks to come. She will probably go into the ore trade.

The keel will be laid immediately for another new vessel.

TO BUILD RAILROAD.

Fifty Miles of Road For Brooks-Scanlon Company.

The Minnesota & Northern Wisconsin Railroad company, which is the logging railroad branch of the Brooks-Scanlon Lumber company, has given a trust deed on its property and on some belonging to D. E. Brooks to secure an issue of $200,000 in bonds, the proceeds of which are to be used in building the road.

The deed runs from the railroad company and D. E. Brooks, of Minneapolis, to the Minnesota Loan and Trust company, of Minneapolis, and it covers all of the railroad property and a large number of acres of land in Beltrami and Hubbard counties owned by Mr. Brooks.

The deed states that the road is to start from Scanlon, in Carlton county, and to run northeast through St. Louis and Lake counties, crossing the right-of-way of the Northern Pacific, Duluth, Missabe & Northern and Duluth & Iron Range roads.

It is also to run into Wisconsin. The bonds are issued to provide funds to build fifty miles of the road, and one of the agreements is that the road makes to the trustee is that the road will be built in a permanent and substantial manner, of 36-pound rails, half of which are to be new and the rest second-hand.

The second-hand rails, however, are not to cost more than $3 per ton under the price of new rails.

The bonds are to bear 5 per cent interest, and $20,000 is to come due Jan. 1, 1903, and the same amount each year thereafter to and including Jan. 1, 1907. The balance, $20,000, is to be due Jan. 1, 1908.

THE FUEL OF THE FUTURE.

This question has been worrying many people who fear that the coal supply is becoming exhausted, but there is no need to worry, however, as a substitute has been discovered in petroleum. In nearly all of Nature's products we find that as soon as one material becomes scarce another is discovered to take its place. There is one exception, and that is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It is Nature's own remedy for all stomach, liver and bowel complaints, and during the past fifty years it has been impossible to make a better medicine. It cures indigestion, dyspepsia, constipation, nervousness and malaria, fever and ague. If you have never tried it do so today. It is known to everyone that it is good for you. CHICKENS ON SHOW

The Sixth Annual Poultry Exhibit Opens Very Auspiciously.

All Kinds of Fine Poultry Strut Proudly About.

Some Special Exhibits of Exceptionally Fine Breeds Shown.

A combined chorus of crows, clucks and quacks from lusty throats gives the joyous announcement to the passerby that the sixth annual exhibition of the Duluth Poultry association is underway. This is the opening day, and all the forenoon Superintendent Smith and his assistants have been putting the birds in pens and arranging the exhibit about the spacious room, which bids fair to be well filled up before all the exhibits are in position.

For the opening day the association has reason to be congratulated on the success of its efforts in bringing before the public the splendid lot of birds that is being shown at the hall. Duluth breeders have had years of experience in the poultry business, and each year has shown better results at the annual exhibitions. One poultry fancier, who has seen similar exhibitions all over the country, says that he has not been to an exhibition where there was so general a run of high class birds as he finds at the poultry show here. Not all the exhibits are in, for some have been delayed, until morning. There are plenty of pens and these are being arranged to show the birds in the most attractive manner.

Those of the exhibitors already in are: Theodore Hollister, Margaret Hope, H. A. Nelson, W. A. C. W. Stewart, Joseph Proff, Mr. Gunderson, Christ Schab, Ole Buckland, C. C. Salter, Mr. Winfield G. W. Smith, G. Hood Thompson, Thomas Franklin, H. S. Patterson, J. P. Weir, John Anderson, J. W. Nelson and others.

Some of the special features of the exhibit include six pens of Blue Andalusians, belonging to President Hollister. These are very handsome imported birds, and this is the first time they have been exhibited. One of the hens celebrated the occasion this noon by laying a beautiful, large, white egg.

There are several exhibits of Belgian hares and Angora white rabbits. None of the cats to be placed on exhibition have yet been brought in, and there is still opportunity for some boy or girl to bring a handsome, fat tabby.

The list of birds on exhibit is a long one, including many breeds of Silver Hamburgs, Buff Leghorns, Brown Leghorns, White Leghorns, Partridge Cochins, Guinea fowls, Pekin ducks, Dark and Light Brahmas, bantam game, Indian game, barred Plymouth Rock, Black Minorcas, Pigeons, Buff Orpingtons, Rhode Island Reds, Silver Grey Dorkings, White Wyandottes, Silver Laced Wyandottes, etc.

West Duluth exhibitors turned out well and have about twenty pens at the show.

The exhibition was thrown open to the public at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon and there was quite a large attendance of those interested in high class poultry. The show will continue this evening and every morning from noon and evening up to and including Jan. 23.

G. H. Holden, of Owatonna, Minn., will act as judge at the exhibition. He is expected in the city this evening and he will judge the birds tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. The scoring will take at least two days.

CHARGES ARE FILED

Against County Attorney C. L. Pratt of Itasca County.

Governor Has Asked the Attorney General to Investigate.

A Commission May Be Appointed to Take Testimony.

St. Paul, Jan. 21.—Governor Van Sant and Attorney General Douglas have under consideration a complaint filed with the governor, charging County Attorney C. L. Pratt of Itasca county with malfeasance in office. The case grows out of the recent trial at Grand Rapids of William Randolph for the murder of Frank Sullivan at Bay Lake City. The trial occurred at the last December term. County Attorney Pratt was ill and the court appointed J. L. Donohue to represent the state. He was assisted by James Peterson, of the county attorney's office. The jury found Randolph guilty of manslaughter in the first degree. Subsequently the defense made a motion for a new trial, upon the grounds that the jury was supplied with whiskey while deliberating upon the verdict, which motion was granted. It is in this connection that the charges are made against Mr. Pratt. Following is a copy of the complaint filed with the governor:

"To His Excellency, Hon. S. R. Van Sant, Governor of the State of Minnesota: Your petitioner, James Peterson, A. D. Brooks, respectfully submits, prefers and makes the following charges against C. L. Pratt, county attorney of Itasca county, Minnesota:

"Your petitioner is the chairman of the board of county commissioners of Itasca county, Minn., and as such chairman of said county and on his own behalf.

"That C. L. Pratt is county attorney of the county of Itasca, Minn., duly elected at the general election, held the 6th day of November, 1900, and has duly qualified and is now acting as such county attorney of said county.

"That said C. L. Pratt has been guilty of malfeasance in the performance of his official duties, as such county attorney of said Itasca county, Minn., in unlawfully furnishing intoxicating liquors to a jury in a criminal case, the facts of which are as follows:

"That on the 17th day of February, 1901, at Bay Lake City, in said county, one William Randolph did shoot and kill one Frank Sullivan; that subsequently thereto a preliminary examination was held before one Thomas Kinschella, a justice of the peace in and for the county of Itasca, Minn., at Koochiching, Minn., and said William Randolph was held to the grand jury of said county.

"That the next grand jury of said county was convened June 1901, and at said term, the said C. L. Pratt, as said county attorney, failed, neglected and refused to subpoena witnesses to appear before said grand jury in said Randolph case.

"That the grand jury instead demanded that the witnesses be forthwith subpoenaed and brought before it, which was accordingly done, and as a result thereof an indictment of murder in the first degree was returned against said William Randolph on the 7th of 1901. When the said grand jury made its final report, it recommended that the court appoint some other attorney to prosecute the case.

TO PEOPLE.

President Hill Is Willing to Leave Verdict of Merger.

New York, Jan. 21.—James J. Hill arrived yesterday from an extended trip through the West. He said he was not at all disturbed by the opposition developed against the formation of the Northern Securities company and was satisfied with the decision of the supreme court to hear the case. Asked if he had found a clear path to many of the people who were at first violently opposed to the formation of the building company, as the people discussed it, much of the doubt regarding its being a benefit to the West was removed.

"I am content to leave the verdict to the people. I have always found that when there was a question of right and wrong to be decided, the people were right. The results of a certain action between a benefit and a future detriment, the majority will always be right."

Mr. Hill referred to the story of a great steamship merger in which his name was mentioned with that of J. P. Morgan.

"It was news to me," he said, "for I never heard of it nor had I heard of the consolidation until I read about it. The story as it was printed appeared to me to be so ridiculous that I did not pay any attention to it."

TO OPPOSE A CHANGE IN VESSEL TAXATION

City Will Fight Change in Vessel Taxation Law.

Committee of Officials and Citizens Is Arranged For.

Fifteen Feet of Point of Rocks to Be Cut Away.

The council last night arranged for a municipal committee to oppose proposed vessel tax change. Authorized fifteen-foot widening of Piedmont avenue at the Point of Rocks. Authorized an expenditure of $100 for proposed Fond du Lac road.

Appropriated money to furnish Carnegie library and improve grounds. Adopted resolution for railway connecting with Garfield avenue viaduct.

All tax commission suggestions determined to be fought vigorously by a general municipal committee consisting of the mayor, the city attorney and three aldermen and five citizens not yet selected.

The council decided on this last evening and it is expected that the committee will consist of men of sufficient influence as to set the Duluth interest right in the eyes of the members of the legislature.

The leading fight will be against the tax commission's recommendation that vessel tonnage registered from this port shall be assessed practically as personal property.

Should the legislature amend the law it would mean that the large registered tonnage of this city would change its port of call.

Up to 1855, vessels registering from Duluth were assessed as personal property and as a result there was not a boat of any size on the great lakes that claimed Duluth as a home port.

Herbert R. Spencer, then state senator, introduced a bill to amend the law so that a net ton on all vessel tonnage registered from this port should be assessed as personal property.

As a result of this law Duluth is practically at the head of the port of registered tonnage and the state of Minnesota is in a position in this respect where other ports in the world are not.

Ex-Senator Spencer and Capt. Roy T. Pratt are the only two men in the state who have been successful in getting a bill passed at the coming session of the legislature.

Alderman Johnson introduced a resolution on the subject of the proposed change in vessel tonnage taxation, and the council decided to hold a public hearing on the subject.

The aldermen voted the rocks along last night over that proposed widening of Piedmont avenue, but the difficulty of the project is still a question.

REVISION OF FAITH

Dr. H. C. Minton Tells Something of What It Means.

A Modernizing of Phrase, Not a Rebuilding of Foundation.

A Pleasant Reception For Him at First Presbyterian Church.

A change in form rather than in character, a modernizing of phrase rather than a rebuilding of foundation, was what was predicted last night for the Presbyterian confession of faith, by Rev. Dr. H. C. Minton, of San Francisco, chairman of the committee on revision of the faith appointed by the last general assembly, the highest body in the Presbyterian church.

Dr. Minton had been tendered an informal reception at the parlors of the First Presbyterian church by the members of the congregation which twenty years ago formed his first charge as a pastor.

After all of the large number present had been presented to or had renewed acquaintance with the doctor, an invocation was delivered by Rev. R. A. Montgomery, of Glenview, Presbyterian church, P. G. Brown sang, "O, Hear the Gospels," and responded to a hearty encore with "On the Bonny Banks of Lochmond."

Miss Jane Dyer, of the church, sang two numbers, "Swallows," (by Cowen), and "Violets." Miss Mayme Bailey also sang very charmingly. "My Heart is Singing," but declined an encore.

Dr. Cleland presented the guest of the evening in a felicitously humorous manner. The doctor said that in the development of the guest could be seen the quality of the foundation built by the First Presbyterian church. "Take people, like Dr. Minton, who are not at all ready to change, but who are ready to change, it means that the people here were the whole church, and the church was the whole church."

The doctor said that there was a great deal to be learned from the revision of the faith. "If you are willing to take the responsibility for the making," smilingly said Dr. Minton, "you are welcome to the honor. He continued to say that the church is the church, and the church is the church."

Dr. Minton said he was still a Presbyterian. The Presbyterian church had a distinct place in the world of religion. Just so far as the Presbyterian church falls behind in its work, so far does the world advance. The church is the church, and the church is the church."

The doctor also spoke of his recent call on President Roosevelt, who, in addressing the Presbyterian church, had declared himself as a "Cromwellian Presbyterian."

CHINESE QUESTION

Senate Committee Hears Arguments For and Against Exclusion.

Various Interests of the Country Were Well Represented.

Differences in Opinion Presented By Those Who Appeared.

Washington, Jan. 21.—The senate committee on immigration gave a hearing today to representatives of various interests on the question of Chinese immigration. Among those present were: Dr. S. Thompson, of the Industrial Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of the World; John B. Webb, president of the Chinese and Japan Trading Company, New York; Hon. Charles S. Hamlin, Boston chamber of commerce; Samuel Gompers, Hon. John W. Foster, S. C. Mead, assistant secretary of the National Association of Manufacturers; Parsons, of the Arkwright club, Boston; Edward J. Livernash, San Francisco; John Ford, of the Asiatic Association; H. R. Fuller, representing the railroad employees of the United States; and a number of representatives of the Southern Industries. Mr. Gompers, the first speaker, outlined the efforts which the Federation of Labor had made in connection with the Pacific coast delegation in congress to perfect a bill which would secure a continuance of Chinese exclusion, and this had been accomplished in what is known as the Mitchell bill.

Mr. Ford spoke in opposition to the bill, and presented statistics of trade between China and the United States. He urged a postponement of any action by congress looking to Chinese exclusion until the expiration of the present treaty in 1904. "We are all interested in being on good terms with China," he said, "and should treat her with some degree of consideration and decent regard for international facts."

He said that the Chinese students, Chinese travelers and Chinese merchants have been unfairly dealt with. Upon being questioned he admitted there is a division of sentiment among some of them being perfectly satisfied with the law as it now stands, while others are dissatisfied with the interpretation of the law. He said that the hope of imbibing American ideas lay in the Chinese student, and the law is hurtful particularly to this class of Chinese.

Mr. Hamlin presented a resolution of the Boston chamber of commerce advocating the Proctor bill, continuing in force the present exclusion law until the existing treaty with China in 1904, and urged that no bill be adopted inconsistent with that treaty because, he said, "that treaty involves the honor and faith of the United States government."
